Trip

I started my journey from Kechla on 25th of December. At seven o'clock we boarded the train to Bhubaneswar. In the morning, we reached Bhubaneswar and visited the science museum. I enjoyed it a lot as it was very interesting. The best activity that I liked in the museum was mirror maze. It was amazing. I tried to do all activities that were there in the museum. Then I went to Baraha Saver temple where I saw the avatars of Vishnu and had a beautiful feeling as I visited it. The next day I visited Bhitarkanika where I sat in a boat and as we passed the trees of Bhitarkanika I saw many crocodiles. First, I saw some small crocodiles and gradually I saw many large crocodiles.

I was so excited to see the crocodiles and I saw more than 200 crocodiles. I was not able to believe my eyes. I also visited the museum of Bhitarkanika and it was very beautiful and was maintained properly. Traveling by bus, on the way we got down in Divya Bhumi museum as it was a shrine of the Mother. As I went entered, I felt silent as it was decorated beautifully. I visited Pancha Lingeswar temple where five lings were located between rocks and water, and only elders were allowed to touch that ling as the water that flows through that ling moves very fast. We climbed many steps to reach that temple. We then went to Balasore by bus. In Balasore, the first place I visited was the Jagannath temple where I enjoyed a lot. I then visited Khir Chori temple where a disciple of Krishna had stolen the Khir and ate it. For the first time I ate rabadi and it was very tasty. I visited the Chandipur sea beach which was extraordinary. We walked a long distance on the shallow sea and we got to play with sea water. Due to low tide, the water had gone far. I played a lot and enjoyed doing photography there. I saw a sea animal and tried to find the name, but it is still a mystery for me. After that I went to Baripada and stayed there.

The next day at five in the morning I did a wildlife jeep safari in Simlipal. I saw many spotted deer, forest hens, giant squirrel and other beautiful birds. The next day I took a train to Bihar. As I reached there, I visited Sita Kund where I saw the Phloom river. I also walked on Sita bridge and had a good experience. I went to Sita mandir and listened to the facts behind Sita's curse. I then visited a village where Dasrath Majhi had dug a road all by himself as a token of love for his wife. He made the people's life easy in that village. I then went to Ari village and stayed there. The next day I took a bath in Brahma Kund which I enjoyed as the water was warm and the place was famous. After that I went for nature safari where I played in the parks and did zipline cycling and it was really scary, but I enjoyed doing it. I then walked on the glass bridge and it was really interesting, I walked on the suspension bridge, and it made me really crazy. After that I visited a Shanti Stupa by ropeway. The same day I visited old Nalanda University where we heard many stories and facts about it. We then visited four monasteries which were beautifully decorated and really amazing. Then we visited a big statue of Buddha and it was really interesting. I visited Kokalat waterfall where I enjoyed taking a bath and it was really exciting. In the evening I went to see a dam. Then I visited Pandu Pokhar park where I did many activities like playing carrom. I did zipline; it was really interesting; I walked in the maze; I did boating which was really enjoyable. Then I visited Swarna Bhandar cave which was made by the sister of Bhimbisar to hide the treasures from the son of Bhimbisar who had put him in prison for greed of wealth and power. The cave was not very amazing but from the outside it looked wonderful. We then went to the place where the mighty Bheem and Jarasandh had fought. That night was our last night, so we danced and sang. The next day we came to Odisha by crossing Jharkhand. We stayed at Rourkela for night. The next day we went to a temple of Goddess Saraswati. There we saw the merging of the three rivers Shankh, Koil and Saraswati. We also saw Saraswati kund, where the water was flowing underground. We visited the birthplace of Ved Vyas who had written the great epic Mahabharata. In the afternoon we went to Kali temple where we had our lunch, then we went to Hanuman temple.
