DOB- 24th December'13

Attendance- 183 out of 183 days

Report for 2023-24 (First Term)

Maths

Sanat is a diligent student studying 4th-grade maths, who aims to answer all questions correctly. He is proficient in expanding numbers and division but occasionally struggles with filling in missing numbers. He is learning about measurement and is actively involved in various measurement activities, with a particular interest in converting units.

Projects

Birds

Sanat's boundless curiosity and fidgety nature found a perfect outlet in the study of birds. While he initially knew names of some birds in the local dialect, he improved by learning the English and Hindi names for most birds of our area. He actively participated in class discussions, though he occasionally needed assistance with pronunciation. He displayed a strong desire to learn new words and comprehend differences between bird types, habitat, and adaptation concepts. In group activities, he created a bird-themed book, contributing to the drawings and written information about the birds. Watching bird documentaries increased his knowledge about birds' prey, habitats, adaptations, and various species.

Occupation

Sanat loves to play football and that's why he wants to become a football player and play for our country. When he is asked any question, then he tries to answer in full sentences in English. He had drawn a football player and he took the help of his friend Gaurav. He did a role play on it and presented it in the class.

Hindi

Sanat excels in his studies, demonstrating proficiency in alphabets, matras, and reading storybooks, albeit at a measured pace. He proactively seeks help from teachers when facing difficulties. He exhibits a particular inclination towards independent reading and participates actively in group reading sessions, even though he may not be the fastest reader in the group. Notably, he has initiated the composition of stories. His writing is neat, albeit with room for improvement. Dictation exercises indicate room for growth in spelling accuracy. Sanat has a grasp of the basics of grammar, including gender (ling), vand vichhed, and numbers, showing remarkable progress after initial challenges. Although he may take some time, he demonstrates the ability to solve questions correctly. Learning Havan mantras proved to be a formidable challenge, but his determination, coupled with the support of peers, allowed him to surmount this hurdle. He has also learnt new songs and poems, which he remembers with ease when engaged and interested.

English

Sanat is a diligent and well-behaved student who consistently attends his English class. In spoken English, he exhibits the ability to construct complete sentences. While his pronunciation may not be perfect, Sanat displays determination in his efforts to pronounce words correctly, and he is open to assistance from the teacher when required.

Sanat's love for reading English storybooks is evident, and he finds immense joy in doing so. Remarkably, he can independently read books at a 4th standard. His fluency in reading is noteworthy. Furthermore, Sanat can effectively retell a story without referring to the book; however, he occasionally encounters pauses in the midst of narration.

Following the completion of a story, Sanat participates in dictation exercises. He demonstrates proficiency by writing most of the words accurately. To further enhance his English skills, Sanat may consider working on improving his handwriting.

Sanat is very interested in watching English movies, with a preference for "Dasha Avatar." He needs to concentrate more and commit to learning poems by heart.

Sanat can become distracted and tends to distract others at times. He should work on being more focused when participating in plays and singing. It takes time for him to learn songs, poems, and dialogue lines for plays.

Odia

Sanat initially showed less interest in Odia but has become more engaged over time. He struggles with speaking words with correct pronunciation and forming sentences. However, he diligently attempts to perform every activity in the class to the best of his ability.

Arts and Crafts

Sanat is mostly quiet but may become talkative when working with specific peers. He demonstrates good drawing skills, particularly enjoying nature drawings. His shading skills surpass his colouring, and he typically completes tasks neatly. Sanat is mostly independent but occasionally seeks teacher guidance.

Puzzles

Sanat can solve puzzles ranging from 50 pieces to 100 pieces. He has a deep fondness for puzzles and is considerate of others in the group, ensuring he doesn't disrupt their work. Sanat is also attentive and follows instructions from didi.

Games and Sports

Sanat is a healthy and a strong boy. He loves to play outdoor games. He is very punctual during games period. He likes to warm up and do running. His favourite game is football. He is in the Helium group. He heads the ball very nicely and kicks the ball very well. His behaviour is good and he responds to his teacher.

Trip- For more details, refer to school report.

Celebrations

Sanat is very eager to participate in all the programs. He is a bit shy on the stage. He likes to do Hindi drama, dance, etc. He likes to wear only selected clothes. He always needs motivation from his teacher to participate.
