She goes to the school neat and tidy. Sometimes she wears dirty clothes. When didi tells her to change her dress, then she changes. She keeps her things in their respective places in her room. She can take a bath and arrange her things by herself. She eats all vegetables and does not waste her food. She can wash her plate after eating. While chanting she is able to sit properly. She chants in a loud and clear voice.

GAMES

Pooja is a healthy and an active girl. She runs nicely and her speed and thinking power is also good. She likes to do running and exercises and play different games. She loves to play with Ankita and Bablu, her two best friends. She plays the games very nicely and understands every game explained by didi. Her favourite games are-

- Chain game
- Apple-apple banana and
- Kho-Kho, but she dislikes “Hide and seek” as she is afraid of bushes.

LANGUAGE (Hindi)

Pooja likes to sing the songs with actions and her favourite song is 'Upar pankha chalta hai'. She has learnt many songs. Some of the times she faces difficulties to pronounce the words. Her creativity is quite good. She can create stories of 9 to 10 lines by making the drawings by herself. During story time, she relates her own daily life story. She is really interested in listening to the stories during story time; she is quite an attentive child. She answers the questions asked to her after the story is told and she can give the right answers. For her language development she participates in short plays done in the group. She takes time to remember the dialogues. On Janmashtami she had performed a play on the fruit seller. In this play she was the narrator. This was her first play but she had performed quite well.

MATHEMATICS

Pooja can count till hundred but has problem in tens place. She can count forward and backward till 20 with ganit mala and other objects. She likes to do the group activities. She tries her best to answer the questions asked by didi.

LANGUAGE (English)

She has improved her pronunciation and also learnt many new words. She loves listening to the English stories told in the group and can point out the pictures very nicely. She knows some basic words. She participates in all the activities done in the group. She did a play “The enormous turnip” where she had played the role of an old man, she had learnt the dialogues quite fast and she really enjoyed the play. She learnt some rhymes like “Chai chai coffee coffee” and “Old Mac Donald had a farm” which she enjoys singing. She also loves singing these rhymes with actions.

ACTIVITY

Pooja has good concentration and she loves to draw. She makes beautiful drawings with different colours. She draws the pictures like trees, birds, grass, mountains, clouds and sun. She can give proper shape to her pictures and she can identify the different colours. She is able to colour the drawings properly. She is very fast in paper folding. She also helped others to make boats. In cutting and pasting Pooja is very good and fast. She pastes the collage paper beautifully. In quilling she is able to roll the strips of paper and make flowers out of it. Pooja enjoys dancing with music. Her body movements are also good. She is gradually developing her fine motor skills.

CELEBRATIONS

Pooja likes to enact plays. She likes to wear the costumes and get ready for the programme. She takes a little time memorising her dialogues. Her voice is soft and she takes times to pronounce the difficult words. She has no stage fear and she always performs her play very nicely. On 11th August she had celebrated Raksha Bandhan with her friends and had made a quilling rakhi for herself during art class. On 15th August she recited “A tree” poem and did a group dance on “Nanha munha rahi hun”. On 18th August “Janmashtami” she narrated the play “The fruit Seller”. On 31st August she sang a Ganesh bhajan “Jay Ganesh” with her group.
