

SORAV SUKIA

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2023-24 (SECOND TERM)

DOB: 18TH SEP - 17

ANNUAL ATTENDANCE 356 DAYS OUT OF 366 DAYS

Introduction

Sourav is a bright and enthusiastic boy who enjoys interacting with his teacher. He has a fondness for speaking and has a good memory for retaining information taught to him. Sourav is punctual and regularly attends school, showing interest in drama and storytelling in addition to his academic pursuits.

Projects

Sourav demonstrates good understanding and concentration during project sessions. He actively engages in discussions and effectively answers questions related to the topics covered. His enthusiasm for learning is evident, particularly in his enjoyment of activities like drawing and discussing healthy habits and types of houses.

Mathematics

Sourav demonstrates enthusiasm for maths but may struggle with applying concepts during problem-solving. Additional practice and guidance can help solidify his understanding and improve his confidence in maths tasks.

English

Sourav is an intelligent student with an exceptional memory. He demonstrates a remarkable ability to quickly memorize tasks and information assigned to him. In the classroom, Sourav has learned numerous rhymes and songs, including "The Ants Go Marching," "This Old Man," and "Two Little Dicky Birds," showcasing his aptitude for retaining musical content.

While Sourav is capable of recounting stories when prompted, he typically does so in Hindi rather than English.

Participating in the play "The Tree's Complaint" for the 21st February celebration, Sourav assumed the role of the spirit of the tree. He delivered his dialogues with grace and beauty, highlighting his talent for performance.

Arts and Crafts

Sourav actively engages in art class, displaying a preference for drawing trees and forests with neatness and precision. He enjoys paper folding, especially making butterflies, and favours the colour blue.

Games

Sourav excels in games and is an active participant in class. He's a dedicated player and a good listener. He enjoys socializing and often has a smile on his face. His favourite games include "doctor-doctor," "back-to-back," "fire on the mountain," and "ice and water."
