

Amrita Majhi

Date of Birth –June 18, 2016

Report for 2022-23 (1st term)

Amrita is a cute girl who is very neat and clean in her appearance. She is very regular and comes to school daily. She is able to do most of her personal work by herself and has neat toilet habits. She is a friendly child, so she has many friends. She eats all foods and vegetables served to her. During chanting time, she sits quietly and chants all the mantras.

GAMES

Amrita is a healthy and energetic girl. She is a quiet girl who does not get into any arguments or fights and does not complain about anybody. She likes to play all the games and is keen on doing exercises.

She always enjoys games.

While running,

in the initial stages she runs very fast but after 2-3 rounds, she slows down and, in the end, she stops running and starts walking.

LANGUAGE (Hindi)

During circle time, Amrita sings all the bhajans and songs loudly and clearly. She likes to learn new songs and prefers songs on animals interspersed with animal sounds. She likes the song “Hind desh ke nivasi”. She likes to listen to the stories which are narrated using big colourful pictures. She is an attentive listener and can give answers to didis when asked. For her language development, she has started participating in some short plays. While doing these plays, she is able to remember the dialogues easily, but she finds it difficult to pronounce some words. Her creative writing is good with occasional help from the didis. On Janmashtami, she took part in a Hindi play where she got the role of a Narrator. She was very good in her performance.

MATHEMATICS

Amrita is good at colour recognition. She knows backward and forward counting till 20. She can also do counting from 1 to 100 with 'ganit mala'. She learnt counting very fast and with great ease. She sits in the class very nicely and listens carefully. When she is asked questions directly, she answers them nicely.

LANGUAGE (English)

She has shown an improvement in her pronunciation. She likes to take part in dramas and attentively listens to stories. Her dialogue delivery is loud and clear; although she does take time to memorise her lines. She took part in the play, "The Enormous Turnip" which was performed in the assembly and enjoyed doing her role. She can understand the stories when didi narrates with actions, sounds and showing the pictures. She likes to see the pictures. She has learnt some rhymes and sings them in a clear voice. Her favourite rhyme is "Red is Amma's Bindi". She also learnt the poem, "Old McDonald Had a Farm". She likes reciting the poems with action and loves to make animal sounds. She can memorise the poems with ease. She likes the song "chai chai coffee coffee" a lot.

CO- CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Amrita likes to make paper collages and do paper cutting. In drawing, she can make pictures of trees, flowers and stones. She also likes to draw different shapes. Most of the time, she uses only one colour. While colouring, the paper becomes dirty at the finishing stage. She takes a lot of time to complete her work and makes it a habit of keeping all the things she has used in their respective places. She also likes craftwork. She does some quilling and has made some flowers for decoration. She enjoys music and when dancing, her movements are sometimes funny.

CELEBRATIONS

Amrita likes to participate in plays and dramas. She does not have stage fright and her dialogue delivery is quite good and her actions during the performance are very good too, although she does take time to learn her lines and her pronunciation of some words needs correcting at times. She loves wearing different costumes and getting ready for her roles. On August 11, she celebrated Raksha Bandhan with her group and other children and made a rakhi also. For the Independence Day, she recited a poem- “A tree” and did a group dance on “Nanha Munha Rahi hoon” with her group. On Janmashtami, she was the Narrator in the Play, “Fruit Seller” performed by her Group. On the occasion of Ganesh Chaturthi on August 31, she took part in a group song “Jai Ganesh” with her friends.
