Introduction

Lavanya is a sweet and happy-go-lucky child. She is also an obedient and sincere girl. She is very friendly with everyone. She enjoys spending her time with her best friend Raila. Lavanya is a healthy and active child. She resides in the hostel and takes good care of herself as well as her younger sister Madhurika. She enjoys studying. Her favourite subject is Mathematics. Her hobbies are reading storybooks and dancing. She loves playing basketball too. She stays very active and energetic during games. Lavanya's dream is to become a Mathematics teacher.

Mathematics

Lavanya loves to do maths and is working on Class 4 maths book. In this book, she has completed many topics, such as perimeter and area, time, the four operations, factors and multiples, space and patterns, decimals, and others. Her favourite topic is data handling, and she enjoyed this chapter a lot as it was new to her. She found area and perimeter a little difficult because she was not able to do them initially. Now, she has finished the Class 4 maths book and has moved on to Class 5 book, where she is currently working on the place value chapter.

Science

Lavanya's favourite subject is science. She likes it because she gets to do many activities and experiments. She also likes doing question answers. She does all the questions by herself. She has finished the 5th grade book and has started the 6th book of Living Science. She gave the whole book test for the 5th book and secured good marks. She always asks her doubts and also participates in group discussions. She likes to do activities and experiments more than writing. She understands the concepts of the chapters better through activities and experiments. Her favourite topic was Solids, Liquids and Gases.

Social Science

Lavanya is an intelligent girl who needs to work hard in order to do better in the class. She liked studying about the early kingdoms. She found the topic of the varna system very interesting and was very curious to learn about the working of a varna system. She helped in making the chart of the early kingdoms and also wrote about Magadh. She likes studying history as she likes reading about the past, about the monuments and the famous places. She did not know about the Janapadas and Mahajanapadas but after doing the chapter she was able to differentiate between the two. She made the citadel while making the chart of the first cities and also coloured it beautifully. She always tries to participate in the discussions that take place in the group and obtains average marks in the tests. She can comprehend the questions by herself and also answers the questions individually.

Hindiv

Lavanya has successfully completed the 3rd book and is now doing the 4th book of GUNJAN. In the 3rd book she gave the whole book test and got 62/80 marks. She is also studying the 3rd book of grammar. In grammar she learnt some basic things like- adjectives, dialogue writing, essay writing, etc. When she works from a book, she first understands the lesson and then answers the questions by herself. If she does not understand anything, she asks and then gets her notebook checked, and she also completes her homework every day. She mostly likes to read “PARI KATHAYEN” and “VIKRAM BETAAL” stories, and she tells good stories but makes silly mistakes while writing the story. She also likes group reading. Her handwriting is very neat and clean, and her reading has improved a lot. She speaks Hindi well but sometimes she has difficulty in pronouncing some words. On 21st February she did the play of “The MOTHER’s STORY” in which she played the role of “NARRATOR”. She remembered the dialogue very quickly.

English

Lavanya loves doing English class. She is currently completing the 4th grade grammar book, focusing on different types of sentences and punctuation. She has learnt about prepositions, conjunctions, and composition in this book. Although she initially faced challenges with these concepts, her understanding improved quickly with clear examples from her teachers. She enjoys grammar but sometimes gets distracted by her friends. In addition, Lavanya loves her textbooks and participates in self-reading once a week, particularly enjoying fairy tales. Names of some of the books which she has read are fly away cottages and lazy Lennie. She also engages in writing activities, including copywriting, paragraph, dictation, and story writing, to enhance her writing skills. She loves doing textbooks, she is doing the class 3rd book. She has completed the 4th chapter in textbook and is doing the 5th chapter.

Shramdaan

Lavanya actively engages in various shramdaan activities. She enjoys doing the girls' hostel cleaning the most. She sweeps and wipes the floors and staircases there. According to her turn, she also cleans the toilets and sometimes fills the filters by fetching water from the hand pump. She also enjoys doing shramdaan in the kitchen, garden, school and the boys' hostel on her turn. She does each activity with sincerity.

Satsang

Lavanya loves singing songs, so she attends the satsang every evening happily. She sits erect and chants the Sanskrit mantras properly. She takes interest in learning different types of songs with the different teachers throughout the week. She learns new mantras and songs attentively. She likes to sit erect with closed eyes and meditate for a few minutes towards the end of satsang. She also enjoys learning sargams every Monday in the music class at the time of satsang.

Celebrations

Lavanya enjoys all the celebrations that are celebrated in the school. She loves being part of the programmes. She usually takes part in singing, dancing and drama to perform on the stage. She learns everything with a lot of interest and gives her best in the performances. She performs everything with a lot of confidence as she has overcome her stage fright. Lavanya was very excited to go for a picnic on Children's Day. She had fun doing swimming, kayaking and eating at the picnic. She was quick at learning kayaking and enjoyed paddling with her partner Jahnvi. She liked eating pulau and baked vegetable although it was a new taste. She had great fun singing a sargam on 29th November. She also enjoyed learning a dance and perform it on Christmas. On The Mother's birth anniversary (21st February), she performed a Hindi play based on the childhood of The Mother. She was a narrator in the play. She spoke her dialogues very fluently, clearly and confidently. She is making good progress in her performances of dance, drama and singing. Holi celebrations was a lot of fun and was interesting for Lavanya. She enjoyed playing Holi with natural colours with her friends. She also liked having a mud bath with her group. She ate all the food items which were put up in the stalls. She liked drinking lassi the most and didn't like dahi vada.

Sports Day- For the Sports Day celebrations, I showed interest for Saree dance. I liked all the formations that we did. I really moved with the music while dancing, though I did not understand the Bengali song. For me this was something new, at the beginning I regarded it as a dance where people perform wearing a saree. Before participating, I thought that it was a new presentation in our school, which I found to be something different and unheard,.
