Report for 2024-25(first term)

Introduction

Lavanya is an obedient and sincere child. She is friendly with everyone and loves spending time with small children. She cherishes her group but considers Raila her best friend, sharing her happiness with her. Her hobbies include dancing and reading, with a particular fondness for fairy tales. She stays neat and clean, keeping her belongings tidy. She has four sisters and no brothers, and she loves them all. When she goes home on Tuesdays, she spends a lot of time with her parents and sisters. She also takes good care of her little sister, who stays with her in the hostel.

Mathematics

Lavanya enjoys maths and is currently working on her 4th-grade maths book, which she started on June 24th. She has covered topics such as place value, addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division. She has now begun the chapter on factors. She finds division challenging and often makes simple mistakes. Additionally, she struggles with solving word problems; when she reads them, she sometimes cannot understand the questions, leading to errors. Lavanya consistently approaches her teachers for help when she does not understand something and makes corrections in her notebook when she gets answers wrong, seeking clarification again.

Projects

Lavanya loves to do project class. She learnt about different types of states and their capitals, the occupations in each state, union territories, and the seven continents. She learnt about the different types of oceans and seas, including their names. She quickly learnt the capitals of each state and also studied the types of rivers flowing in her own state. She used maps while learning this. She enjoyed learning about political and physical maps by creating charts. She engaged in activities like drawing and colouring during project class. She also learnt about the languages spoken in each state, famous foods, and the types of clothing worn. She studied mountains and tried her best to gain more knowledge about her state. She completed all her writing work in beautiful handwriting while making her chart. She tried to share what she learnt about her state with her friends and was very active throughout the chapter.

Science

Lavanya loves science and is very talkative in class but lacks confidence when answering questions. She has completed Classes 3 and 4 of Living Science and is now studying Class 5. She enjoys doing homework questions but often finds them challenging. She likes making charts based on chapters and has enjoyed creating charts for topics like the solar system, water energy, and wind energy. Sometimes, she gets distracted by friends during the explanations, affecting her understanding. She believes studying science is important because it helps her in daily life. She performs well on tests, as she asks many questions and is actively engaged. However, she sometimes gets confused when questions are posed to her. Studying science inspires her to teach younger children.

Social Science

Lavanya is an intelligent girl who is focused and attentive in the class. She always tries to participate in group discussions and gives her opinion. She understands the concepts when they are taught and remembers them. She helps her mates to memories the important points that have to be remembered and thus enhances her memory. She enjoys studying this subject and finds it interesting, she likes it more when they are shown videos clear their doubts. When questions are asked orally, she is able to answer and while writing it out, she writes in the proper way. She has a good handwriting and writes fast. She has learnt many new words that she uses while speaking. She aims to do better in the class and works hard for it.

Hindi

Lavanya is now more attention in studies. She has finished the 3rd book of Gunjan. After completing the 3rd book, she gave the whole book test in which she obtained good marks. Now she is studying 4th class book of GUNJAN, and also studying the 3rd class grammar book. After understanding the lesson, she answers the questions by herself and goes to understand again if required. She has improved a lot in Hindi. Nowadays she concentrates in class and completes her work on time. She learns well. Her handwriting is very neat and clean. She likes to read “JAATAK KATHAYEN & AKBAR BIRBAL” stories in Hindi. In dictation she makes few mistakes. She writes and tells good stories by herself, but while writing, she makes a few mistakes. She also corrects her mistakes. On 5th July she played the role of VIDWAAN in “ISHWAR KANHAN HAIN” play. She was able to speak her dialogue properly. She wrote a poem on 15th August- “MERA PYARA BHARAT.

English

Lavanya has a strong passion for her English class. She is currently completing the 2nd-grade grammar book, focusing on different types of sentences and punctuation. She has learnt about interrogative, exclamatory, assertive, and declarative sentences. Although she initially faced challenges with these concepts, her understanding improved quickly with clear examples from her teachers. She enjoys grammar but sometimes gets distracted by her friends. In addition, Lavanya loves her textbooks and participates in self-reading once a week, particularly enjoying fairy tales. She also engages in writing activities, including copywriting, paragraph dictation, and story writing, to enhance her handwriting skills.

Odia

Lavanya has a good understanding of the Odia language. When asked a question, she responds clearly and confidently, demonstrating her proficiency in spoken, written, and read Odia.

Arts and Crafts

Lavanya is an enthusiastic artist in her art class, immersing herself in various activities like paper folding, quilling, drawing, Rakhi making, and cut-and-paste crafts. She particularly enjoys paper folding and has a special fondness for creating intricate rabbit boxes. Despite her proficiency, she occasionally encounters challenges, especially with Rakhi crafting. Her drawing skills are remarkable, with a preference for depicting nature. Lavanya's expert use of sketch pens and her favourite colour, violet, adds a personal touch to her work. Her commitment to detailed and finely finished creations reflects her passion for art.

Puzzles

Lavanya is skilled at making puzzles. She can concentrate well while working on them and is capable of joining 100 to 150 pieces. She mostly enjoys doing puzzles with her friends and loves princess-themed puzzles. She is able to sit quietly during class without disturbing anyone.

Dance

In dance, I enjoy both Kathak and Zumba. In dance class, we learn different types of dances. For the school's birthday, I performed a dance to the song "School Chale Hum." During Rath Yatra, we danced to an Odia song. On Independence Day, we performed the "Jai Ho" dance, For Janmashtami, we learnt the dance to "Meera Ke Prabhu." For Ganesh Chaturthi, we were taught a Kathak dance by Suparna didi. In dance class, I do not disturb my didis. I take my time learning new steps, but I always try my best to learn quickly. I pay attention during class. If I struggle to learn the steps for any program, I ask didi repeatedly to teach me again. We are now learning new steps of Kathak. I have learnt some steps of Kathak and am refining them with Suparna didi. I know the Bhumi Pranam of both Kathak and Bharatnatyam.

Yogasana

Lavanya attends yogasana classes every morning at 6 AM with a fresh mind and body. She loves doing different asanas, although she is unable to do all of them perfectly. She performs joint exercises properly before doing the asanas to avoid injuries. She continually strives to improve her asanas and make her body more flexible. Her favourite asanas are Vrikshasana (Tree pose) and Sirsasana (Headstand). She also enjoys doing Surya Namaskara (Sun Salutation) and performs it as perfectly as possible to gain the maximum benefit from the asanas.

Shramdaan

Lavanya engages in various shramdaan activities, such as gardening, kitchen work, and cleaning in the hostels, school, and toilets. Her favourite task is cleaning the filters and filling them with water. She has learnt to perform all the work properly. Every Sunday during shramdaan time, she arranges her bed and shelves and cleans her bed sheets and clothes. She also helps her little sister with these tasks, teaching her to keep her things tidy. Additionally, she cleans her group's toilet sincerely, along with her partners, once a week according to her turn.

Satsang

Lavanya reaches satsang on time at 6:15 PM. She chants the mantras properly while sitting in a good posture, knowing that proper chanting brings benefits. She enjoys singing bhajans, patriotic songs, and other Hindi and English songs. She takes a keen interest in learning new chants, bhajans, and songs. With her good voice, she sings loudly and clearly, both in a group and solo. She feels confident when singing alone. Lavanya loves meditating for a few minutes at the end of the satsang period, as it brings her inner calm.

Games

Lavanya is physically healthy, fit, and strong. She is in the Boron group during games. She arrives on time at the field, performing her running and exercises before starting the games. She loves all games, but basketball is her favourite. She plays with great energy and happily engages with her team, demonstrating good coordination. She has shown significant improvement in her game skills, especially in football and basketball. She also comes back from games on time and quickly heads for a bath.

Competitions

Lavanya actively participated in singing, art, and Hindi poem writing competitions in August, giving her best in all of them. She wrote a beautiful poem on 'Mera Bharat' for the kavita competition and sang the song 'Ei Arjya Bhumi' in the singing competition, as she loves her country very much. She won 3rd prize in both singing and kavita writing. She was thrilled to receive these prizes, as she had worked hard for the competitions. Participating helped her gain more confidence in herself and her abilities.

Celebrations

Lavanya loves taking part in programmes at school and strives to give her best in all performances. On the school's birthday, she enacted a play named 'Ishwar kanha hain,' playing the role of a vidwan (wise man). She looked very smart in her dhoti and kurta costume and acted well, speaking her dialogues confidently in a loud and clear voice. She also performed a Kathak dance with her friends on the same day. Lavanya took part in other dance performances for the festivals following the school's birthday. During Rath Yatra, she performed the same Kathak dance in front of the rath. She danced to the song 'Hatare Badhi' on Bahuda Yatra, having a great time celebrating. On Independence Day, she danced to the song 'Jai Ho,' and on Janmashtami, she performed a short dance to the song 'Mira Ke Prabhu.' For Ganesh Chaturthi, she danced to the chant 'Vakratunda Mahakaya.' She learnt these dances with great interest, practising diligently, which allowed her to perform confidently on stage.
