

Raila Krisani

DOB- 6th August'13

Report for 2023-24 (Second Term)

Mathematics- Raila is currently engaged in learning fractions in group activities and finds it enjoyable. However, she encounters difficulties in reducing fractions to their lowest terms and understanding equivalent fractions. Raila often seeks feedback on her notebook to rectify minor errors, indicating a desire for improvement. While tackling measurement of length in her textbook, Raila struggles with word problems, resulting in occasional mistakes.

Projects- Raila enjoyed participating in various activities related to the bicycle topic. Although she takes a little time to answer questions in class, she is engaged and interested in the topic. She made a beautiful model of a bicycle with her friends. In class, she learned about different types of bicycles and various brands.

Raila displayed a keen interest in the topic of time, evident from her proactive approach in asking numerous questions both before and during group discussions.

She demonstrated a strong desire to clarify any doubts and deepen her understanding of the subject matter.

During group discussions, Raila actively participated by posing insightful questions, indicating her commitment to fully comprehend the topic at hand. Her engagement in asking questions contributed to a more enriching discussion, ensuring that she gained comprehensive knowledge by the conclusion of the project.

Raila particularly enjoyed hands-on activities such as creating a model of a sand clock and drawing clocks. Despite facing challenges, such as not being able to construct a simple clock model, she remained enthusiastic and engaged throughout the project.

Throughout the project, Raila expanded her understanding of fundamental concepts such as the definition of time, the history of clock invention, and the distinction between clock and time. Her enjoyment of activities like shadow marking further enhanced her understanding of time-related concepts.

English- Raila thoroughly enjoys English class and actively participates in discussions. While she sometimes struggles with pronunciation, she is quick to seek assistance from the teacher and makes notable improvements. She has a particular fondness for reading storybooks during class and has completed the first book of good grammar, covering various topics including pronouns, verbs, adjectives, articles, and nouns. Raila also delivered a heartfelt recitation of the poem "Surrender" for the Mother's Birthday after dedicated practise for 5-6 days.

Hindi- Raila's increased attentiveness in Hindi class and improved reading skills reflect her dedication to academic progress. Having completed exercises from the "Abhyaas Pustika" and "Gyan Sarover," she is currently engaged with 3rd-grade material in "Gunjan." Raila actively participates in class discussions and diligently completes her assignments. Her neat handwriting and interest in reading various stories demonstrate her enthusiasm for Hindi literature. Despite occasional challenges with dictation, Raila's commitment to improvement is commendable. She authored a story titled "The Mother and the Flowers" for the Mother's birthday celebrations.

Odia- Raila sits quietly in Odia class and answers questions when asked. She may be confused about some alphabets, but she tries. She enjoys singing in Odia class, writing alphabets neatly, and hearing stories. She makes an effort to read and write.

Arts and crafts- Royla loves to do art, she likes to draw birds and different kinds of painting. She likes to make different kind of design with different color which it looks very beautiful. When her mood is good she makes the drawings very beautifully. She is very attentive in the class and she always concentrates, her drawings are neat and clean, she also likes to do shading, paper folding and nature drawing.

Shramdan- Please refer to the introduction of the group report.

Games- Raila is a punctual girl who participates in all physical activities. Her favourite game is football because it helps improve her kicking skills, and she enjoys playing it. On sports day, she participates in the Lazium dance corner and enjoys it a lot.

Puzzles- Raila demonstrates a keen interest in puzzles class and maintains concentration while working on puzzles. She typically completes puzzles ranging from 70 to 100 pieces and takes her time to ensure accuracy. While she takes her time to complete the puzzles, she has shown improvement in completing puzzles of various piece counts within one hour.
