

Chandan Jani

DOB: 09th OCT- 17

Annual Report for 23-24(second term)

Introduction

Chandan is an exceptionally bright student who consistently demonstrates a strong commitment to his studies. He attentively listens to his teacher and actively participates in classroom activities. Chandan exhibits a disciplined approach to learning and shows great enthusiasm for engaging in new and interesting activities. Additionally, he takes pride in his appearance by wearing neat attire to school.

Projects

Chandan displays a keen interest in project-based learning and actively participates in discussions. He demonstrates good comprehension of the topics covered and effectively communicates his understanding during discussions. His interest in the topic of types of houses is evident, and he enjoys engaging with the learning material.

Mathematics

In mathematics, Chandan excels as a quick learner who eagerly absorbs the concepts taught by his teacher. He has mastered counting up to 100 and can also count backward from 50. Currently, he is making strides in using the abacus and effectively demonstrates his understanding by accurately representing numbers as instructed. Chandan maintains a high level of concentration during math lessons and has shown significant improvement over time. He comprehends different types of activities and objectives with ease, further contributing to his academic success. Overall, Chandan's dedication and diligence in mathematics are commendable, leading to his notable progress in class.

English

Chandan is a well-behaved student who has shown proficiency in learning various songs and rhymes in the class. He has learned a variety of songs and rhymes, including "This Old Man," "Chai Chai," "A-Ram-Sam-Sam," "The Five Little Monkeys," and "Old MacDonald Had a Farm."

Participating in a play for the 21st February celebration, Chandan took on the role of a little plant. Although he did not have any dialogues in the play, he portrayed his character beautifully on stage.

In terms of storytelling, Chandan demonstrates some difficulty in retelling stories when prompted by teachers. However, he makes an effort to try.

Arts and Crafts

Chandan demonstrates interest in drawing various elements of nature and colouring his drawings beautifully. He occasionally requires assistance in paper folding, with his favourite colour being red.

Games

Chandan excels in various activities like running, tree climbing, and exercise. He's quick in everything he does and enjoys games like "chain game," "ice and water," and "dog and bone." Chandan is attentive when learning and practicing yoga. While initially hesitant to play with other boys, he still enjoys games like football, musical chairs, and "fire on the mountain."
