

Ankita Bishoi

Date of Birth- April 25, 2016

Report for 2022-23

Ankita comes to school daily and is staying in the hostel. She can do all her personal work and has good toilet habits. She eats all the food and vegetables given to her and can clean her plate.

GAMES

Ankita is a healthy and active girl. Her speed in fulfilling her duties and thinking power is very good. She loves to run, exercises and play different games. She is good in sports and does very well in almost all the games she participates in. She likes to play with Pooja and Bablu who are her best friends. She likes all the games but her favourite games are-

- Chain game
- Standing Kho-Kho
- Doctor- doctor help us
- Tom and Jerry

But if she doesn't like the game, she just sits down and refuses to play. When motivated, she does get up and plays for a while but again sits and does not participate.

LANGUAGE (Hindi)

Ankita is an intelligent child and has a good grasping power so she learns things very easily. She is a keen learner. She is a talkative child and has a loud and clear voice. She is interested in learning the things that are taught in the class, so she is very attentive. She is a good singer and has learnt many songs. She remembers the lines very quickly. Her listening power is also good and she listens to the stories attentively. When didi asks questions, she is the first one to give the answer. She also tries to retell the stories that have been narrated. She is able to create stories of about 10 to 15 lines by making drawings.

She has learnt the names of colours and has made some drawings of vegetables and fruits and did pasting too. She has participated in some short plays in Hindi and can remember the dialogues easily and pronounce the words correctly. She performed for the first time on Janmashtami and she got the role of a child. She took a little time to remember her dialogues, but on the whole she did very well in the play. She spoke her dialogues clearly.

MATHEMATICS

Ankita is always present in the activity class and is very attentive. She grasps everything very quickly. She has learnt forward and backward counting till hundred, though she has some problem in backward counting. She cannot remember the number before the tenth place. She can show the numbers with ganit mala and can easily tell after and before numbers till twenty. In colour recognition she is very good and fast and can recognize all the colours.

LANGUAGE (English)

She listens to all the stories very carefully and does not hesitate to ask questions whenever she has a doubt. She can retell the story again on her own. She likes all types of stories. She knows most of the names of the pictures that she is shown. She can not only tell the colours of the objects but can count the objects as well. She is fully attentive and concentrates in the class. She tries to answer when she is asked. She has improved her pronunciation and knows the basic things. She knows opposite words. She has learnt two poems, “chai chai coffee coffee” and “Old McDonald had a Farm”. She enjoyed a lot when we were reciting these poems in class. Ankita sings very beautifully and has learnt the action of these poems. She is very happy when she is singing these poems. She likes to learn new songs and rhymes. She has a loud and clear voice. She took part in the play, “The Enormous Turnip”. She was the narrator in the play. She learnt her dialogues very fast and immensely enjoyed doing this play.

CO CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Ankita has a good concentration power and likes to make drawings of nature like mountains, sun, birds, butterflies, etc. She also colours beautifully. Her fine motor skills are developing now. She can give a proper shape to all the pictures she attempts. In paper folding, she can fold the paper nicely and make a boat out of it. In quilling, she can roll the strip of paper very nicely if she concentrates. She can identify the colours of her drawings. She uses different colours in her drawing to make it beautiful. She also likes to tear the paper and make a collage. She helped in making a rainbow for group decoration with her friends. She enjoys listening to music and to dance.

CELEBRATIONS

Ankita is always very excited before any programme. Her voice is loud and clear whether she is delivering a dialogue or singing. She does not have stage fright. She delivers her dialogues very sweetly. She loves to dress up and wear the costumes of her plays.

On August 15, Independence Day, she recited the poem “A TREE” and did a dance on the song, “nanha munha rahi hoon” with her friends. On August 18 for Janmashtami, she played the role of an old woman in the play, “Fruit Seller”. On 31st August, she sang the song “Jai Ganesh” with her friends.

