

CHETNA PARAJA

Age: 6 years

Chetna is a friendly child. She talks and plays with all children in the group, older and younger ones from other groups as well. Her best friend is Jagriti.

She is responsible. Given a task she finishes well. She also takes initiative to arrange and clean the group.

She has good understanding. She learns and remembers songs well. She likes the chant - Paramacha Prabhu Satya, and bhajan - Shyam Tujhe Milne Ka. She chants clearly sitting in good posture.

Sometimes when she doesn't feel like doing an activity or finds it challenging, she stops participating and puts her head down.

ENGLISH

Chetna is an enthusiastic learner. She has picked up quite a few words in English through songs.

When encouraged she will use sentences in English.

She enjoys telling stories and reading books through pictures. This has helped develop her imagination.

On a few occasions Chetna has told stories to the class in English. Well done Chetna.

HINDI

Chetna is able to take identify words starting with particular alphabets. She also started recognizing alphabets rather quickly. She does all activities with lot of attention. She picked up reading two letter words rather quickly. Chetna also tells imaginative nice stories.

MATHEMATICS

She feels she can solve all problems and she knows well, as she can understand and remember the concept very quickly. She can do forward counting up to 70 clearly and up to 100 with some mistakes.

She knows the number before, after and in between.

She has also done skip counting for 2 and 3 up till 50. He can add and subtract within 10 using objects clearly. She has also learnt the table of two.

She likes to help others to solve math problems, while she forgets and delays completion of her work. Then she asks “Didi I’m ahead of everyone na”. When the teacher says no, others are about to complete, she remarks “so what, I will do now and finish first”.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Drawing, painting, sculpturing, paper folding, cutting / pasting for making some things, all interest her a lot. She has improved in her drawing.
