

SUMITRA JANI

DATE OF BIRTH – 04th OCT- 18

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2023-24 (Second Term)

INTRODUCTION: Sumitra is a diligent and regular attendee at school. Residing nearby, she arrives at school neatly attired and maintains good hygiene. She relishes having breakfast at the hostel and engaging in playtime with her peers, particularly enjoying the sandpit activities. Her preferred colour is blue, and she exhibits a positive attitude towards everyone.

CIRCLE TIME: During Circle Time, Sumitra demonstrates proper posture and participates in chanting mantras with closed eyes. Although she may encounter difficulty with certain phrases, she endeavours to recite them after the teacher. Sumitra has mastered many songs in both Hindi and English and takes pleasure in singing them with enthusiasm, often incorporating actions into her performances.

PROJECTS: In her project on animals, Sumitra displayed great excitement and interest. She can identify various animals and replicate their sounds accurately. Her visit to the village to observe domestic animals further enriched her understanding, reflected in her detailed drawings of these animals. Sumitra exhibits strong concentration during storytelling sessions, comprehending narratives effectively.

MATHS: Sumitra has attained proficiency in counting up to 50 and is currently advancing towards counting up to 100. She demonstrates attentiveness and concentration in maths class, seeking assistance from teachers when needed. Her ability to select specific numbers from a set and engage in basic addition and subtraction tasks with objects reflects her understanding of mathematical concepts.

LANGUAGE: Sumitra enjoys listening to stories during language class and exhibits comprehension in both Hindi and English. She actively participates in storytelling, sometimes reciting stories from memory. Additionally, she is expanding her vocabulary in English and confidently communicates her name in the language. Sumitra's enjoyment of songs in both languages is evident in her enthusiastic participation, often accompanied by actions.

GAMES: Sumitra actively engages in games, displaying enthusiasm and competitive spirit. She particularly enjoys playing chain games and ensures she warms up before participating. Despite encountering falls during play, she maintains composure and continues with the game. Her fondness for sandpit activities highlights her enjoyment of outdoor play and exploration.

CELEBRATIONS AND FESTIVALS:

On 25th December, Sumitra participated in a song performance with her friends, singing "I am a Little Star" with enthusiasm. Her rendition was delightful, and she eagerly awaited the arrival of Santa Claus.

On 26th January, she watched a parade on television, enjoying the spectacle with keen interest.

For Basant Panchami on 14th February, Sumitra sang the song "Namo Sharda," relishing both the performance and the opportunity to don traditional attire and partake in Prasad.

On 21st February, in celebration of the Mother's birthday, she took part in a play titled "Maata Ka Rishta," portraying a potato. Despite feeling nervous, she delivered her role admirably, showcasing her determination and talent.

Lastly, on 25th March, Sumitra joyously participated in the Holi festivities, revelling in the colours and indulging in sweets, adding to the joyous spirit of the occasion.

