Introduction

Sumitra is a sweet and intelligent girl who consistently listens attentively to her teacher. She maintains a strong focus in class and demonstrates proficiency in answering questions. Shanti enjoys engaging in various activities and shows a keen understanding of concepts through different approaches. Overall, she is regarded as a very good student.

Projects

Sumitra shows a keen interest in understanding the concepts taught in the project class. While she sometimes struggles to grasp certain concepts, she makes efforts to participate and answer questions to the best of her ability. Her engagement and enjoyment in the class are evident, particularly during activities like drawing and discussing good habits.

Mathematics

In mathematics, Sumitra performs well and has shown improvement over time. She can count up to 100 and understands numerical concepts effectively. Shanti's interest in math has grown, and she eagerly seeks to enhance her knowledge in the subject through active participation in class activities.

English

Sumita is a well-behaved and reserved student who tends to speak very little with her peers, preferring to remain silent in class. Despite her quiet demeanour, Shanti demonstrates a quick ability to learn songs, grasping them swiftly. She has learned a variety of songs, including "Green Grass Grows All Around," "Five Little Monkeys," "Old MacDonald Had a Farm," and "Two Little Dicky Birds."

Participating in a play for the 21st February celebration, Sumitra took on the role of a little plant. While she delivered her dialogues beautifully on stage, she exhibited a slight shyness.

Arts and Crafts

Sumitra enjoys drawing scenes with clouds, rain, and stars, exhibiting precision and cleanliness in her work. Her favourite colour, yellow, complements her artwork, and she enjoys making boats in paper folding.

Games

Sumitra enjoys games and plays them nicely. She has good speed and stamina but needs improvement in high jump, long jump, and some exercises. Her favourite minor games are "fire on the mountain" and "ice and water."
