INTRODUCTION

Eithishi is a quiet girl who is always regular in attending school. She lives nearby, and she arrives at school clean and neatly dressed. She enjoys having breakfast in the hostel and playing in the sandpit with her friends after a meal.

CHANTING AND SINGING

During circle time, Eithishi quietly and properly sits, closing her eyes and chants all the mantras she has learned. She is familiar with all the chants but sings softly. She has learned mantras like "Asotoma Sat Gamaya," "Sri Vakratunda Maha Kaya," "Om Anandamayee," "Paramach Prabhu Satya," "Gurur Brahma," and songs such as "Tan Ho Sundar," "Aloo Bola Mujhko Khalo," "Teddy Bear Teddy Bear," "Red Is Amma's Bindi," "Hai Bhagawan Tujhe Pranam." Her pronunciation is decent, and she strives to sing nicely, although she occasionally experiences nervousness. She is known for her quiet demeanor in the classroom.

PROJECTS

In the project class, Eithishi has worked on the topics of colours, vegetables, and fruits. She has had some difficulty memorizing the names of vegetables and fruits, but she can recall them, albeit with some time. She speaks softly and, when asked about specific vegetables like tomatoes, she is able to answer. She enjoyed colouring pictures of vegetables and fruits and took pleasure in painting, especially pictures of potatoes and tomatoes.

MATHEMATICS

In maths class, Eithishi is attentive but sometimes takes time to grasp concepts. She has learned counting up to 20 and is currently working on counting up to 30. She enjoys arranging beads and objects on the floor, can match objects, and can make comparisons, such as identifying whether an object is big or small, heavy or light, or more or less. She also enjoys listening to others when counting.

CELEBRATIONS AND FESTIVALS

Eithishi actively participated in school programs, performing a song on Independence Day. She also danced in the song "Maa Ka Kanhaiya" for Janmashtami. On Rathyatra, she joined the other children in the school and enjoyed dancing. For Ganesh Chaturthi, she sang "Ek Do Teen Char Ganpati Ki Jai Jai Kar." She relishes being part of functions and appreciates watching the performances by other groups.
