

Pushkar Kamar

2021-22

DOB- 17th June'15

Pushkar joined the school earlier. He had come to school for almost a year. He stayed at home during the lockdown, where nobody was there to guide and take care of him. After the impact of the pandemic became less, he too re-joined the other children. He had to stay in the hostel as per our rules where we were completely cut-off from the village.

He had many emotional issues and took some time to settle in the hostel. Bikanti Didi really took very good care of him to make him feel secure. He slowly coped with the environment and the routine. He started enjoying so much that if he would see his mother coming to the hostel, he would hide somewhere in the fear that she would take him to the village.

He is independent in his work. He still needs to learn how to care for materials. Every alternate day he loses his brush and soap. He helps in cleaning the hostel area and toilet during shramdan.

Circle time

After brushing his teeth and washing himself, he comes and sits properly in the group. He waits for everybody to start chanting. He closes his eyes and chants all the mantras properly and loudly. He takes less time in learning the mantras. He sings songs very well. He loves singing with action. His favourite song is Johny- Johny yes papa. He can sing alone confidently.

English

He loves stories and listens to them carefully. He tries to repeat the sentences after didis. He answers all the questions that are asked. He can tell some of opposite words like fat-thin, long-short, big-small, tall-short etc. He has learnt the student's prayer 'make of us the hero warrior'. He has difficulties in remembering the sentences for drama. He can name body parts, fruits, vegetables, some birds and animals. He loves looking at the pictures in the word books. He has also learnt a few rhymes which he loves singing loudly in the group. He tries to retell the stories in English.

Math

Pushkar had forgotten counting. He started from the beginning. He can count till 20 without getting confused. He finds it easy to count with objects. Pushkar finds it difficult to count backwards. He recognises different shapes and can tell their names. He loves to construct with blocks and the rangometry kit.

Hindi

He loves listening to Hindi stories. He can communicate his thoughts in Hindi clearly. He tries to tell stories with pictures in full sentences. His pronunciation is good in Hindi. He can tell the names of the pictures in the book. He loves singing Hindi songs.

Skills work

He loves colouring books. He colours the pictures with bright colours. He takes a long time to finish his drawing. He loves to draw trees and birds. He tried to make Santa and boats in origami. He found it difficult to crease papers properly. He loves doing collage. He also loves to paint with his hand and thumb impressions. He has a good sense of colour.

Food habit

He washes his hands and plate before eating. He sits properly and keeps quiet while eating. He tries to eat all kinds of green vegetables. After eating, he cleans his plate and rinses his mouth properly. Sometimes he misplaces his plate and cup and keeps looking for them.

Toilet habits- After using the toilet, he washes himself properly.

Games

He loves to play in the field and also in the sandpit. He is very good at running. He is active in games. He loves playing with balls. He enjoys playing fun games like ice and water, rat and cat etc. He is fearless. He can climb trees and can jump from heights.

Programmes

He is reluctant to dance and tries to follow the steps. He had participated in dance on the Mother's Birthday on the song Chanda Mama. He loves to sing more than dance. He participated in a group dance and singing on Christmas Eve.
