

Manju Bishoi

DOB- 9th February'13

Attendance- 183 out of 183 days

Report for 2023-24 (First Term)

Maths

Manju is a very hard-working student and very attentive. She is very focused and patient in the class. She is progressing in maths, and improvement can be seen in her answering skills. She has learnt different methods to solve addition, multiplication, and division. She has learnt to measure in mm, cm, m, km, and cubit. She enjoyed measuring the height of her partner and the verandas of the maths lab. Her accuracy in measurement needs to be improved. She had a little problem in the conversion of units. She has a good understanding of the addition and subtraction of units. She can show 1 to 4 digit numbers mentally and show them on the abacus without a problem. She has a good understanding of word problems and remains focused in class. She is an independent child and does most of the work on her own. Whenever a question is asked in class and if she knows the answer, she gives answers in full sentences. Manju has finished the 3rd book and has been given the 4th book.

Projects

Birds

Manju, a bright girl in the group, was captivated by feathery birds, motivating her to choose the bird topic. She eagerly embraced new vocabulary and information presented by the teachers. She particularly enjoyed bird-watching sessions with binoculars, where she observed birds like drongos, cranes, bulbuls, mynahs, and parrots. Manju independently drew many bird illustrations and wrote about them in the book she created with teacher assistance. During group discussions, she actively shared her knowledge and attentively listened to her peers. Manju was skilled at answering questions in full sentences and sought clarification when needed, as demonstrated during the documentary session. Her curiosity and willingness to learn shone brightly throughout the bird project.

Occupation

Manju had taken the role of a lawyer because when she grows up she wants to become a lawyer and support the innocent people. In the class when the teachers ask her some questions, then she answers all the answers properly and tries to speak in full sentence. She had also drawn a picture of a lawyer and it was very beautiful and she also did a role play about the lawyer.

Hindi

Manju is a calm and hardworking girl. She studies with great concentration. She finds great pleasure in reading. Her reading ability has much improved. Along with reading, her writing has also improved a lot. She tells the stories very confidently and makes very few mistakes while writing a story. She corrects her mistakes on the spot and comes to the teacher to get them checked. She learns songs quickly and her voice is also very melodious. She helps other children with their studies. She likes to take dictation and she makes few mistakes. She has learnt basic grammar and enjoys numbers & Varna vichhed. Sometimes she struggles with Sanskrit words but was happy to learn hawan mantras.

English

Manju is an adorable and attentive student in the class. While she tends to be quiet, she is fully engaged during lessons, listening attentively to her teacher. Manju is not timid in class and responds directly to questions with confidence. Her ability to answer questions demonstrates her understanding of the material.

In terms of her reading skills, Manju is competent, but there is room for improvement. When faced with challenging words, she seeks assistance from her teacher for proper pronunciation. Additionally, her spelling could use some refinement, and she acknowledges the need for improvement in this area. There is also some scope for enhancing her handwriting.

One notable trait is her dedication to speaking in English during English class, showcasing her commitment to improving her language skills.

Manju is a quiet, responsible, and punctual girl with a melodious voice. She sings beautifully and is quick to grasp most things. She is keen on participating in plays and is capable of understanding English movies. Her memory is excellent, and she retains songs, poems, and other content for an extended period.

Odia

Manju sits properly, is punctual, a quick learner, and has a good memory. She understands Odia well and speaks in complete sentences with proper pronunciation. She is proficient in names of flowers, plants, animals, and body parts. Manju enjoys singing songs, takes an interest in listening to stories, and tries to retell them in sentences.

Arts and Crafts

Manju is primarily interested in craftwork, demonstrating patience and determination when cutting paper into small pieces. She encounters challenges with oil pastels and shading but is proactive in seeking help. Manju takes her time to complete tasks, ensuring her work is well-executed.

Puzzles

Manju takes pleasure in solving difficult puzzles, often in collaboration with her friends during puzzle class. She tackles puzzles with interest and aims to complete them efficiently, often assisting others in the class. Her approach is characterized by silent and focused puzzle-solving. She particularly enjoys 150-piece puzzles.

Games and Sports

Manju is in the Boron group. She always reaches the ground on time. She does the exercises properly but needs improvement in her stamina for running. She likes to play all types of games such as base-kickball, dodgeball, football, touch ball, and other fun games and her favourite is base-kickbakk. She cooperates with her team mates during games.

Trip- For more details, refer to school report.

Celebrations

