

ROHINI GOUDA

DOB: 24TH AUG -09

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2023-24(SECOND TERM)

ANNUAL ATTENDANCE 366 DAYS OUT OF 366 DAYS

Introduction: My name is Rohini Gouda, and I am 13 years old. I am a student at A.M.V.M, which I really enjoy attending. I take pleasure in participating in various activities at school, including games, classes, and dances. I always strive to behave nicely towards my teachers and classmates. Maintaining cleanliness is important to me, so I ensure that my room and surroundings are tidy. When it comes to meals, I have a preference for dishes like poha, idly, puri, and Maggi. While I cherish spending time with friends, I also appreciate moments of solitude.

Science Report:

Science is one of my favourite subjects. Currently, I am studying the 8th-grade science book, having successfully completed the 7th-grade curriculum. I particularly enjoyed learning about topics like crop production, microorganisms, and reproduction. While I found some chapters easier to grasp than others, I actively participate in class discussions and diligently complete my assignments. Science fascinates me, and I am eager to continue learning and exploring new concepts.

English Report:

English class is something I enjoy. Currently, we are reading the book "Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets," part two. Although I found part one easy to understand, I struggle with grammar, particularly at the fourth-grade level. Despite my shortcomings, I am determined to improve and actively engage in free reading sessions. My reading skills are decent, and I have a good grasp of spelling, although my spoken English needs refinement. Nonetheless, I find English class fascinating, especially as I delve into more complex literary works.

I have also embarked on the 10th syllabus of NIOS through Open Schooling, with exams scheduled for October. While I relish the stories in the syllabus, I encounter difficulties in formulating answers. Nevertheless, I am committed to preparing for my exams diligently and overcoming these challenges.

Hindi Report:

Hindi is another subject that I enjoy. Currently studying the 6th-grade book, I previously completed the 5th-grade syllabus. I actively engage in class activities, including free reading sessions and grammar exercises. Although I occasionally seek clarification from my teacher, I am confident in my ability to comprehend and complete assignments independently. I take pride in my reading, handwriting, and spelling skills. Overall, I relish the opportunity to learn and grow in Hindi class.

Maths Report:

I have a mixed relationship with Maths. Although I generally enjoy it, there are times when I feel bored or lose interest. Currently, I am studying the 6th-grade maths book, having completed the 5th-grade book previously. While I find some topics engaging, I struggle with others, and my performance in tests reflects this. Despite facing challenges, I remain attentive in class and try my best to understand the material. I appreciate the opportunity to learn and always maintain a positive attitude towards math.

Social Science Report:

In Social Science, we are currently studying the 8th-grade book after completing the 7th-grade syllabus. While I generally enjoy the subject, there are moments when I find it tedious. However, I am committed to understanding the material and actively participate in class activities. I occasionally struggle with certain aspects, particularly in civics or history, but I make a concerted effort to overcome these challenges. Overall, I find Social Science intriguing and look forward to delving deeper into its complexities.

Odia Report:

In Odia class, I am currently studying the 2nd-grade book. While I generally enjoy learning Odia, there are times when I find it less appealing. Although I can speak Odia, my proficiency is limited. My handwriting in Odia is satisfactory, but I am not fond of dictation exercises.

Despite occasional tardiness, I consistently attend class and strive to improve my Odia skills.

Art Report: Art class is one of my favourites, where I engage in activities like paper folding, painting, and drawing. While I may not excel in art, I make a concerted effort to improve and always pay attention to the teacher's instructions. Although my painting skills are not exceptional, I thoroughly enjoy art class and find it creatively fulfilling.

Dance Report:

Dance holds a special place in my heart, and I have learned various dance forms and mudras, including Odissi. I am familiar with different hand gestures and names of fingers, which enhances my understanding of dance techniques. I particularly enjoy styles like Garba and Contemporary. I am attentive in dance class and find joy in expressing myself through movement.

Computer Report:

In computer class, we primarily focus on Typing Master, with occasional sessions dedicated to painting. While I find typing challenging at times, I make efforts to improve my skills. Painting is something I enjoy, and I always listen attentively to the teacher's guidance. Despite occasional lateness, I appreciate the learning opportunities provided in computer class.

Music Report: I have a mixed feeling about music class; while I enjoy it at times, there are moments when I find it less appealing. Singing loudly isn't my forte, but I excel at playing the harmonium. However, there are instances when I feel bored during class. Despite this, I have a genuine fondness for playing music, and I make sure to attend class punctually.

Occasionally, if I have other commitments, I may arrive late. Nevertheless, I always listen attentively to the teacher's instructions and follow along with the lesson.

Games Report:

I am fond of playing games such as Basketball, Football, and Volleyball, with Basketball being my favourite. Physical exercise has always appealed to me, and I make an effort to participate actively in games. While I generally listen to the teacher's instructions, there are moments when I get distracted and struggle to focus on the game. Despite facing challenges and criticism from my peers at times, I remain resilient and strive to improve my performance. Engaging in exercises like feet rotation and hand rotation is something I enjoy. Overall, I have a strong passion for playing games and always endeavour to do my best.

Shramdaan Report:

During Shramdaan sessions, I utilize the time to catch up on my Maths studies as I feel I am lagging behind compared to my peers. I am committed to attending Maths class regularly to bridge this gap. Additionally, on Sundays, I dedicate time to clean my room, which I find conducive for focused study. Overall, I value the opportunity to engage in productive activities during Shramdaan sessions and make the most of my study time.

Yogasana Report: I have a fondness for practicing yoga in the mornings, although there are occasions when I find it challenging to maintain consistency. While I generally attend yoga sessions on time, there are instances of tardiness. Despite occasional difficulties, I am dedicated to incorporating yoga into my daily routine. I prioritize listening to the teacher's instructions and strive to improve my practice regularly.

Celebrations:

29th of November:

On the 29th of November, I had the opportunity to sing a song. Although I enjoyed the experience, I found myself feeling a bit bored during the process. Despite this, I managed to learn the song within four days, and I must say, it turned out quite nicely.

25th December: We celebrated Christmas on the 25th of December, and as part of the festivities, we sang 'Jingle Bells'. While the song was relatively easy for me, some of my friends found it challenging. During our stage performance, I experienced a moment of forgetfulness, which made me nervous about singing. However, overall, the performance went well, and I particularly enjoyed singing 'Oh Come All Ye Faithful', which is one of my favourite songs.

The Mother's Birthday:

For the Mother's birthday, we put on a play called 'The Virtue', in which I played the role of a daughter. Although I had thoroughly prepared my lines, I felt a bit nervous during the performance. Despite this, the play was well-received, and I believe we did justice to our roles.

Basant Panchami:

During Basant Panchami, I participated by singing a song. While I struggled with singing loudly, I had managed to memorize the song quite well. It took us five days of practice under the guidance of our teachers to prepare for the performance. Even though I couldn't sing very loudly, I thoroughly enjoyed the experience.

Holi:

Holi is one of my favourite festivals. We celebrated by playing with colours, followed by a lively dance session. Afterward, we went shopping and watched a movie in the afternoon. To wind down, we engaged in meditation in the evening. Overall, I thoroughly enjoyed the Holi festivities.

Sports Day: On Sports Day, I participated in a classical dance performance, which I found to be very interesting and enjoyable. The day began with a march, followed by relay races and various games. One of the highlights was a friendly match between students and teachers, where everyone participated enthusiastically.

Each student performed admirably in their chosen activities, making the Sports Day a truly enjoyable and memorable event.

Our journey commenced on the 24th of February. We departed from Koraput station and caught a train at 7:00 am. The next day, we arrived in Kolkata. Our first stop was the Botanical Garden, where we marvelled at the diverse ponds, plants, and trees. Of particular interest was the ancient banyan tree, which captivated us with its grandeur. Our visit to the Indian Museum was equally enlightening, as we admired various sculptures, artworks, and models, including a monumental statue of Queen Victoria. We then proceeded to the Gandhi Mandap, where we paid homage to the Mahatma and learned about his life and principles. The cleanliness of the surroundings left a positive impression on us. Later, we checked into the Blue Moon Hotel in Guwahati and visited the War Memorial, appreciating its serene ambiance.

The following day, we travelled to Shillong, where we spent three days exploring its attractions, including the Mawmbuin Cave, Nohkalikai Falls, Thangkharang Park, Root Bridge, and Balancing Rock. We also visited the cleanest village in Asia and ventured to Cherrapunji, famous for its rainfall.

Our journey then took us to Kaziranga National Park, where we enjoyed an exhilarating elephant safari. Subsequently, we visited a school in Arunachal Pradesh, followed by a visit to the snow-covered Sela Pass and the picturesque town of Tawang, home to the second-largest monastery. After a brief stopover in Rupa, we returned to Assam and stayed at the Blue Moon Hotel once again.

Continuing our exploration, we headed to Sikkim, where we stayed at the Tiara Regency. Our itinerary included visits to temples, Nathula Pass, a flower exhibition, and historic palaces. We also explored the local markets, immersing ourselves in the vibrant culture. Concluding our trip, we returned to Kolkata, where we visited Science City and Nicco Park, enjoying various recreational activities. Reflecting on our adventures, I can say that this trip was truly memorable and enriching.
