March 2019

She is a very active child. She always comes to school wearing clean clothes. She has learnt how to clean herself. She eats her food well, including all vegetables. She comes early to school. She likes to clean the room and outside. She loves to arrange flowers for the Mother.

Circle time:

During circle time, she sits nicely and chants well. Sometimes she leads the chanting. Her memory is good, so she remembers all the chants and songs. She likes to sing the songs loudly with actions. She has learnt some Hindi and English rhymes. She likes to sing “chhote mama ji ke ghar” and “ra ta tat a the dancing cat”. She is helpful to other children and happy to share her things. She does all activities nicely.

Her memory is good. She can think and tell answer. She can identify differences between big and small, heavy and light. She is able to arrange by size in both orders. She knows short-long, fat-thin. She can identify colours and shapes. She knows 1 to 20 counting. She can tell after and before numbers with objects and by telling creative stories. When diya gave her to decorate the objects in the picture or shapes, she is able to do it competently. She focuses while doing puzzles or blocks.

Hindi:

She speaks Hindi. Her pronunciation is satisfactory. She listens to stories with focus and gives answers to diya's question. Sometimes she tells her creative stories. Her thinking power is good. She likes to play the language game "hot potato pass it on". She can name fruits, vegetables, animals and some birds in Hindi.

Anjali is very bright. She is capable of remembering things very easily. She is enthusiastic and listens to everything very carefully. She is very good at understanding. Most of the time she tries to express in English and can speak a few sentences correctly. Anjali has speech problem. Most of the words she can't pronounce properly. She loves singing and role play very much. Most of the time she chooses the main character in the play. She is fearless and loud in front of the audience. She has a good vocabulary. Sometimes with a little help she can tell a simple little story in English.

Her artwork is one of the best amongst her group children. She uses different colours in her drawing and she has good sense of colour combination. She likes to paint with her hands using her fingers and palms. She also likes clay modelling. She makes collage very nicely.

Celebrations:

She dances and does drama very nicely. On the Mother's birthday, she played the role of the Mother very well. She doesn't have stage fear. When the school programme was approaching, she got very excited to do drama.

Her health is good. She can run fast. She always likes to play in the sandpit with kitchen sets. She also likes to play hide and seek, white tiger and yellow tiger and chain game. She plays joyfully.
