

Gaurav Krisani

DOB- 28th December'12

Attendance- 182 out of 183 days

Report for 2023-24 (First Term)

Maths

Gaurav has finished the second book and is currently studying the third book in mathematics. He enjoys maths but occasionally struggles to maintain his focus. He sets a goal to complete a maximum of two exercises before taking a break to eat. While he is proficient in addition and subtraction, he takes extra time for multiplication and division because he is working on memorizing multiplication tables.

Projects-

Birds

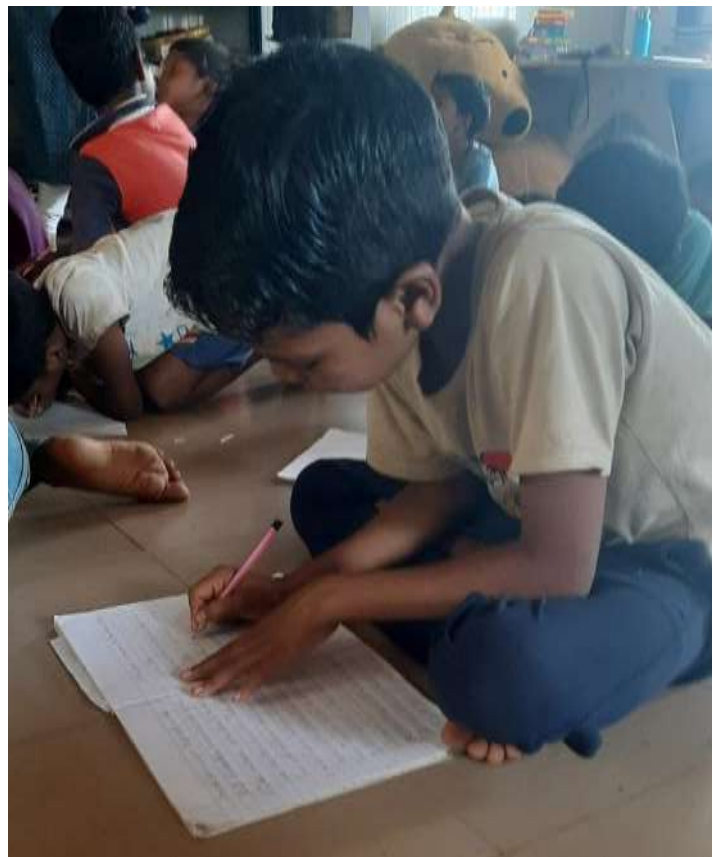

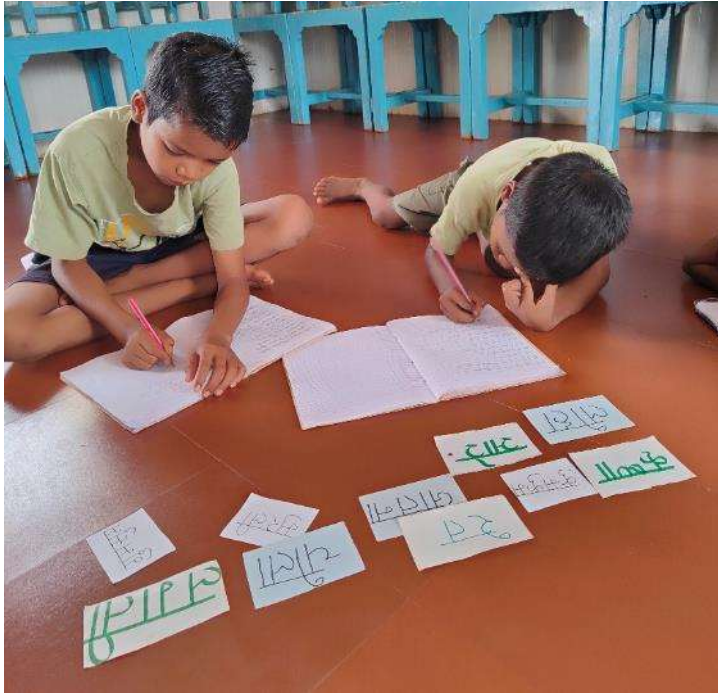

Gaurav's curiosity led him to explore how birds protect themselves and their offsprings, the mechanics of nest-building with beaks and claws, and other avian features. His inquisitiveness led to increased knowledge about bird characteristics and new vocabulary. He crafted a story, "The Two Parrots," which he included in the book he created. Gaurav was captivated by bird documentaries, as well as early morning bird-watching outings with his peers. He expanded his understanding of various bird-related terms and bird categories, including habitat and food habits. Gaurav's book featured well-organized information about bird features, reflecting his dedication to the topic.

Occupation

Gaurav wants to become an engineer when he grows up because he wants to make his own types and styles of buildings, cars and other vehicles. He had made a very beautiful drawing of an engineer and it was very neat and clean. When asked any questions, then he is able to answer but he takes some time. He tries to sit quietly and listen to the teacher.

Hindi

Gaurav is an intelligent and quiet boy who enjoys Hindi class and reading moral stories. He reads books like "Akbar Birbal," "Panchatantra," and "Seven Baby Hens." He's improved his reading and writing skills, although he makes a few errors. He has learnt songs, poems, and Hawan mantras in Hindi class and is always eager to learn new things.

English

Gaurav is a well-behaved and endearing young student who possesses a strong affinity for English class. His dedication to attending class regularly is commendable. While Gaurav attempts to converse in English, he often struggles to complete sentences. However, with the teacher's guidance to form complete sentences, he exhibits a determined effort to speak clearly and confidently, ultimately achieving success. Gaurav is receptive to instructions on proper word pronunciation, and once guided, he effectively pronounces words.

Gaurav is blessed with a keen memory and a swift ability to learn. This was evidenced when he participated in an English drama, undertaking the role of a narrator. After being given his lines, Gaurav swiftly memorized them. Although his initial delivery may have lacked fluency, he quickly improved, delivering his lines fluently, articulately, and clearly.

A notable facet of Gaurav's learning journey is his passion for reading English storybooks. He has made remarkable progress in this regard, now possessing the ability to comprehend the content he reads. Following the completion of a story, Gaurav can retell the narrative to the teacher without referring to the book. Nonetheless, he occasionally encounters difficulties while narrating due to pronunciation challenges with certain words.

Gaurav actively engages in dictation exercises with his classmates following group reading sessions of storybooks. He exhibits proficiency in spelling, typically writing most words correctly. While his handwriting may not be flawless, he is willing to make improvements

Gaurav is quick to learn his lines and shows a strong interest in watching movies, particularly enjoying "Dasha Avatar."

Odia

Gaurav maintains good classroom behaviour, understands the language well, and tries to respond briefly. He is making notable improvements in his speaking skills. Gaurav enjoys participating in all classroom activities and has learned the names of some animals while being able to count to ten in Odia.

when instructed to do so. During storytime, Gaurav maintains proper posture, focusing intently and listening attentively to the narratives. His evident enthusiasm and dedication to his English studies contribute to his ongoing progress.

Gaurav is a well-behaved and obedient student. Although he can sometimes be playful, he generally sits nicely in class. He demonstrates his skills by singing beautifully with good pronunciation. He should aim to become more expressive when participating in plays and acting.

Arts and Crafts

Gaurav is deeply enthusiastic about art class, where he indulges in oil pastels, bird-themed crafting, and drawings of bird body parts. His shading work is noteworthy, and while he is sometimes talkative, he maintains attentiveness throughout the class. Gaurav is skilled in various art forms and is polite to others.

Puzzles

Gaurav particularly enjoys puzzles

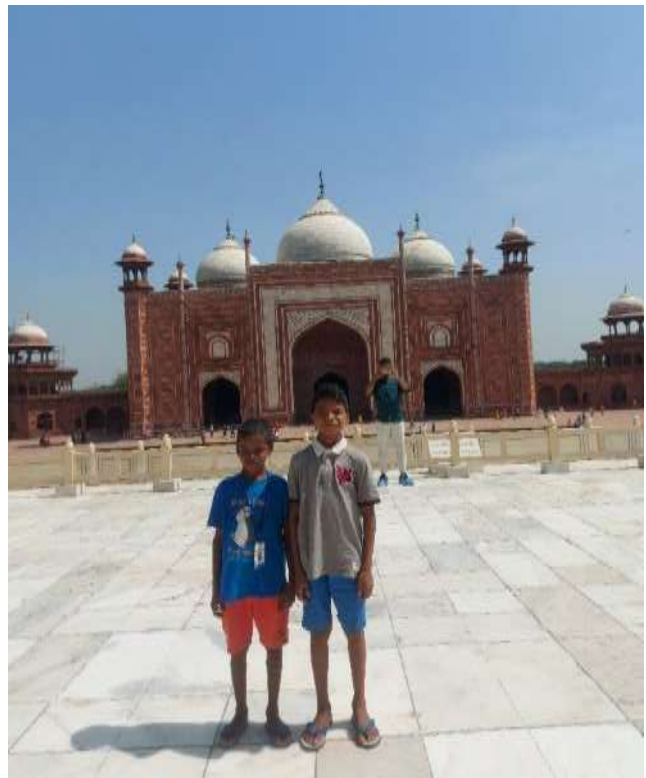

featuring Avengers pictures. His enthusiasm for puzzles is evident, and he is a well-behaved child. Gaurav is an excellent listener and cooperates with didi.

Games and Sports

Gaurav likes to play but doesn't like to do exercises as he feels that it eats up into his playing time. He has a good stamina and likes to play football. While playing football, he kicks the ball very hard. He has learnt that if he plays football, his eyes-hand coordination, leg muscles, stamina and speed will improve.

Trip- For more details, refer to school report.

Celebrations-

