Report for 2022-23 (Second Term)

Ranjit did not come to school regularly because he was seriously unwell and was taken to the hospital regularly. In the last few months, he has been attending school.

Maths:

Ranjit is fond of doing maths. He is very calm and pays attention in his studies. After finishing the book 2 and he started doing level 3. But he was not confident in some concepts, so in the morning class he used to do maths with his classmates.

Projects:

Shelter:

He learnt about different types of animals' shelters. He learnt that some animals live in hole, nest, caves, and other shelters. Pet animals live in cowshed, and stables. Humans live in different types of shelters like wooden house, treehouse, pucca house, kuchha house and bungalow. Now he knows that shelters help us from wind, rain, heat, cold, and wild animals. He enjoyed painting his multi storied building which he made with clay. Now he has the basic idea about what materials are used in making multi storied houses.

Transport: He liked this topic and learnt many new things about transport and saw many pictures of different types of vehicles. He made a drawing of oil tanker on a chart paper. He participated in the water transport project and made a model of oil tanker with clay. He had participated in the land transport group.

English:

Ranjeet has a pleasing behaviour. He speaks politely to everyone. His reading is fine and he makes few errors. He can communicate in English. He loves his English class very much. His favourite English song is Imagine and his favourite storybook is beauty and the beast. To improve his English, he sometimes watches different English movies with his group mates.

Hindi:

He is quite good in studies. She is able to recognise all the alphabets, matras and is able to pronounce the words properly. He has started reading short stories fluently, is able to understand it clearly without anybody's help and he can also explain the same story without hesitation. The book which he has taken to read but if he doesn't find the story interesting, then he peeps into other children's book. He has started writing alphabets with matras and he writes very neatly.

He is more interested in reading than writing. He is very interested in learning new things and always participates in the group. He has learnt a few songs and Hind Desh, Teri bina ki ban jaun tar and Thandi hawa chali hai and he was able to catch the lines very. On Christmas he danced on Thandi Hawa Chali Hai. He danced very well with full confidence.

Games:

He is energetic during football and kicks very well. He never tires while playing other fun games. Before playing he does all joints exercises and running.

Celebrations:

His expressions are fabulous. In the play- The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, his role was of scarecrow- with proper costumes. He was so excited to do this drama. He has no stage fright in front of the audience. On Christmas he enjoyed performing by singing various carols.
