ENGLISH

Nila has special ability with spellings and sentence construction. When she gets involved in her work she is hard to distract, but sometimes she starts doing her own thing and has to be told to finish the activity at hand.

She has good pronunciation and a relatively wide vocabulary and is able to think in English.

She loves to read and is quick to use appropriate words that she has picked up.

Nila also has good sense of punctuation and writes insightful stories that involve interesting situations.

Participates in class when she wants and makes good observations.

MATHEMATICS

Nila is progressing slowly in Math. She needs to be coaxed to do Math.

Mostly she spends her time talking to friends and reading story books.

Though she is going to finish Book-V, she has poor understanding of most concepts.

SANSKRIT

Neela is good in Sanskrit reading. She pays attention to all activities.

She re-reads and tries to understand whenever she gets stuck.

She is good in translating orally and while writing too.

ODIA

Neela has developed a clear pronunciation in Odia.

She is on the path of learning Odia. However she is reluctant to reading with the diyas help or other friends help.

She is not willing to correct her reading errors. Nila thinks she is smart.

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Nila does her work peacefully. During the heat and light topic she made a thermometer using a bottle and straw. She also made a Kaleidoscope scope using a mirror from scrap.
