Volunteering

Shramdan

My shramdan starts at 6:30 am. I do school cleaning, girls' hostel cleaning, boys' hostel cleaning, toilet cleaning, kitchen work, and gardening. I enjoy doing all this. I like to sweep the school campus. I also love watering the plants. During cleaning, I clean the drain, mop the dining area, and clean the campus.

Sports Day

I celebrated my Sports Day on 13th of January. I began the day by concentrating with the Mother's music. After my whole group and I did marching. Doing marching was really enjoyable. After finishing marching, I took the guests to our temple. I with some other children took them to the village where they got tamarind to taste, and they liked it. I showed them the whole village. After visiting the village, I took them to the dining area for lunch. I also took them near the reservoir. In the afternoon at 3:30 our programme started. I liked all the items.

Trip to Bihar

On the 25th of January, my group and I took a train from Koraput to Bhubaneswar. On the morning of the 26th, I reached Bhubaneswar, where I visited the Science Centre. There, I saw many science experiments. One Sir also demonstrated some experiments. After visiting the Science Centre, I went to Khandagiri School, where I had my lunch. After lunch, I left for Aul by bus. In Aul, I visited Bhitarkanika, where I saw many crocodiles of various sizes. It was really fascinating. I also went to Varah Mandir in Aul. From Aul, I travelled to Baleshwar. In Baleshwar, I visited a relics centre of Sri Aurobindo, Panch Lingeshwar Temple, Khiro Chori Gopinath Temple, and Chandipur Beach.

From Baleshwar, I went to Baripada. In Baripada, I visited Simlipal and Sita Kund Waterfall. In Simlipal, I didn't see a single tiger. From Baripada, I travelled to Baleshwar railway station and took a train to Gaya. In Gaya, I visited Vishnupad Temple, where Harsh Bhaiya told us the story of the temple. I also noticed that many people were performing Pind Daan. I walked over the Sita Setu and visited the Sita Mandir in Gaya. On the way to Harsh Bhaiya's village, I also visited Dashrath Manjhi Road, which I liked.

I reached the village in the evening. The village was named Array. The next morning, I took a bath in the Brahma Kund, a sulphur spring. After bathing, I went for a nature safari. During the safari, I walked on the glass bridge and the suspension bridge. I also did sky cycling. It was really enjoyable. I also visited Jarasandha's Malyudh, Kakolat Waterfall, and Shanti Stupa. I then visited Bodh Gaya.

In Bodh Gaya, I visited the famous Mahabodhi Temple. When I visited, the people there were celebrating the anniversary of the Bodhi tree. The environment was really serene. They were chanting mantras, which echoed throughout the place. I also visited the Chinese Temple, Thailand Temple, Bhutanese Temple, and Japanese Temple. At Pandu Pokhar, there were many games and adventure activities like football, basketball, volleyball, carrom, gun shooting, bull riding, special boating, and many others. I also visited the famous Nalanda University.

Additionally, I saw the Swarna Bhandar, the chariot marks of Lord Krishna, and the Jal Mahal in Pawapuri. I left the village on the 5th at around 11 am for Rourkela by bus. Late at night, I reached Rourkela. Early the next morning in Rourkela, I visited Hanuman Temple, Kali Temple, the birthplace of Ved Vyas, and the Saraswati River. In the evening, I took a train from Rourkela and reached Koraput on the morning of the 7th.
