

LAKSHAYA, 7 years, Flower Group

Lakhya is becoming more responsible in studies.

He tries his best to do properly and not getting distracted.

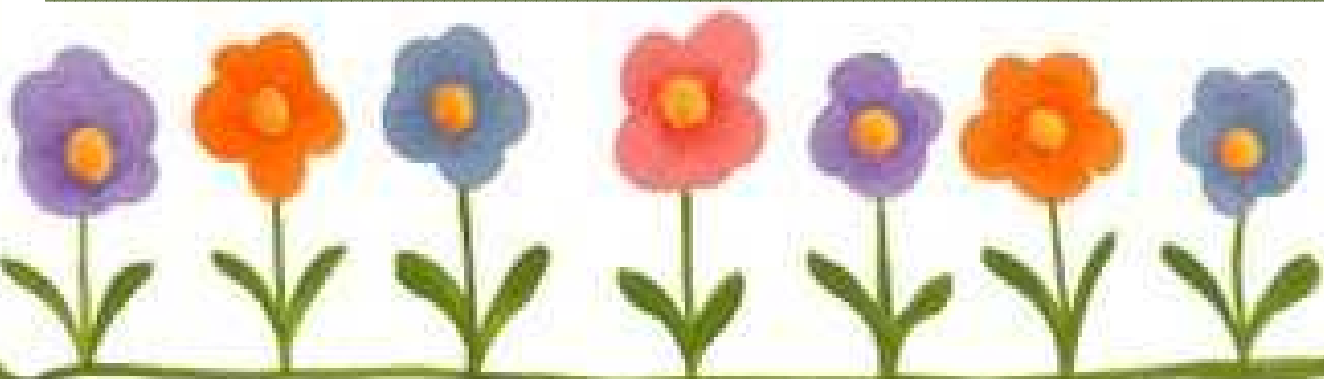

Though he is himself an obedient child, he expects that from others as well.

If anyone doesn't concentrate or speaks loudly, he immediately asks them not to do so.

He works hard.

If something does not interest him, he remains silent and thinks something else but he doesn't disturb others.

LAKSHAYA, 7 years, Flower Group

English Language - Lakshya is learning English at a quick pace.

He can read fluently and if told a new word once, he can retain it.

He speaks with confidence and does his sentence construction pretty well.

He is good at language games and largely proactive in class.

Also good at remembering songs and pronouncing new words.

Lakshya played narrator in a drama and didn't forget his lines, though he had trouble with a couple of words in the beginning during practice.

Hindi Language - He has learnt to read. In dictation also he listens carefully to write correct spellings. He thinks clearly and makes proper sentences.

LAKSHAYA, 7 years, Flower Group

Odia Language - He looks like the elder boy of the group. Sometimes he is unable to concentrate in the class at the time of listening to story, singing songs and while Odia conversation practice.

He has a strong observation power, as a result he has picked up difficult words and structures also.

Most of the time Lakshya listens carefully but he is unable to express using a sentence with correct pronunciation.

He is obedient in class. But he learns at his own pace. Sometimes he just laughs and laughs in the class.

Math: Lakshya does math with intense interest.

He enjoys playing with numbers. He quickly gets the process, how the problems has been solved and accordingly follows the steps to and solve most of the problems on his own.

He reads the questions / word problems from the Math book and is able to understands them.

He is able to write the numerals of three digit numbers.

LAKSHAYA, 7 years, Flower Group

He is able to do the addition and subtraction of three, four digit numbers with three, four digit number without any mistake.

He is able to do skip counting of 1 to 10 easily.

He has started doing multiplication and division. He knows the names of 3D shapes.

In Projects and Activities : Lakshya prefers to learn new things.

He is curious to know, read about a topic or new concept.

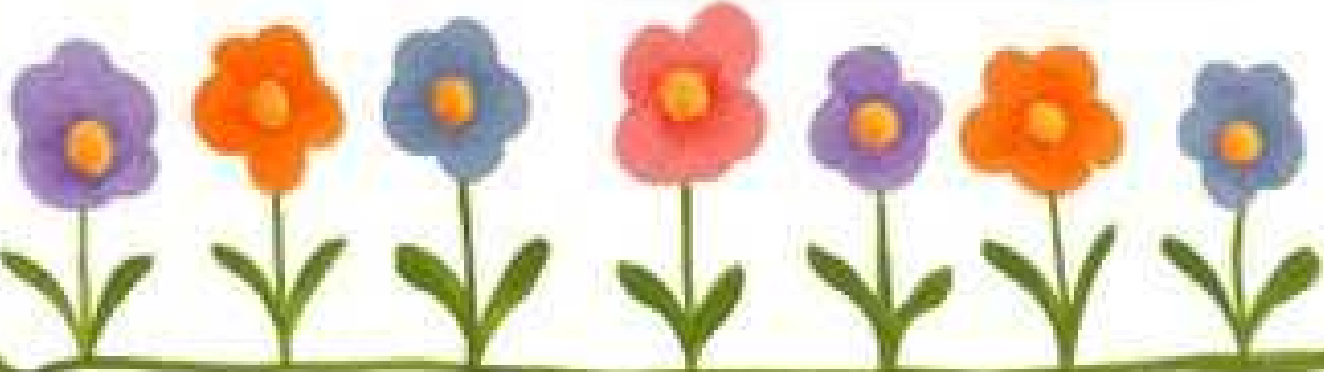

He learns thoroughly, stores all the information as well as his experiences, later uses them whenever required.

He actively participates in discussions and shares with his peers.

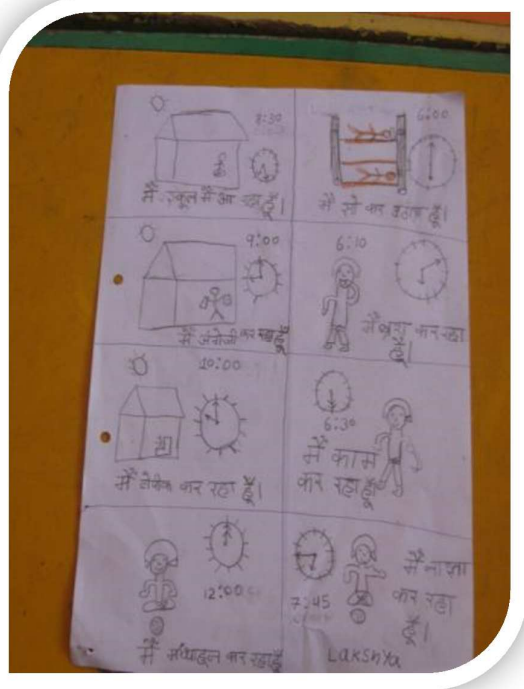

He gets the concepts easily.

He is organized in his work.

He is able to do the worksheets of fill in the blanks, jumbled word, missing word without any explanation from elders.

LAKSHAYA, 7 years, Flower Group

He worked on different topics, such as Me and Myself, Mother's birthday, Trees and Plants and Time.

He is now better aware of his own emotions and body parts.

Lakshya has understood the concept of day and night, days, month, year and the changes in the environment around us.

Skill work: He prefers to do more hand work. When he sits quietly, he moves his fingers. Is always keen to make new thing by cutting, pasting, painting.

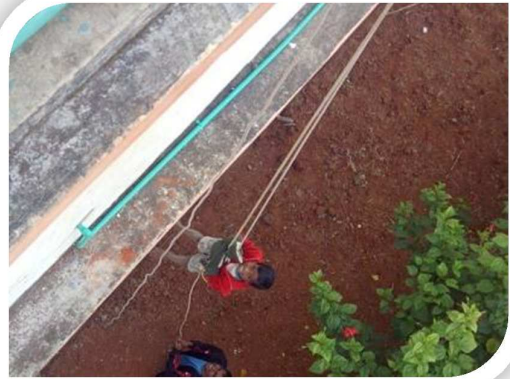

He does his work as perfectly and neatly as possible.

LAKSHAYA, 7 years, Flower Group

Games and Sports: Lakshya takes parts in games and sports enthusiastically every day.

He has developed his stamina for running and doing exercises. He can run for 20 minutes continuously without taking break.

He enjoys playing all types of games. Whichever game is difficult, he puts his best effort and plays happily with the group.

Sport's Day - Lakshya performed well with the group.

