Dob: 24th MAR -17

Annual Report for 2023-24(second term)

Annual Attendance 350 days out of 366 days

Introduction

Rashmi is a polite and hardworking girl who demonstrates a strong dedication to her studies and extracurricular activities. She exhibits resilience and determination, always striving to understand concepts that may initially challenge her. In a recent drama performance on February 21s, Rashmi took on the role of the Mother, which involved memorizing lengthy lines. Despite the difficulty, she persevered and delivered a commendable performance, showcasing her commitment and adaptability.

Projects

Rashmi is a calm and soft-spoken child who enjoys participating in chants and songs before class begins. She took part in the healthy habits topic, contributing to the creation of a chart displaying various habits. Despite her soft voice, Rashmi actively engaged in making pictures and learning through real-life experiments, gaining a better understanding of maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

Mathematics

In mathematics, Rashmi has made notable progress, having learned various counting techniques such as skip counting and backward counting. Her improvement in this subject reflects her diligence and willingness to learn. Beyond academics, Rashmi enjoys spending time with her friends and actively participates in different activities, which contribute to her overall growth and development. She consistently puts forth her best effort in everything she undertakes, demonstrating her admirable work ethic and positive attitude.

English

Rashmi is a well-behaved student, albeit somewhat reserved in the classroom, preferring to speak little. Despite her quiet demeanour, Rashmi demonstrates a remarkable ability to learn songs quickly when taught in class. She has acquired proficiency in various songs, including "The Five Little Monkeys" and "Old MacDonald Had a Farm."

During a special event on 21st February, Rashmi participated in a play where she took on the role of a little plant. Although she did not have any dialogues, she portrayed her character with grace and confidence, showcasing her acting abilities without any hesitation or shyness.

Rashmi's ability to learn songs swiftly and her confident performance in the play reflect her dedication and talent. Despite her reserved nature, she contributes positively to classroom activities and displays a willingness to participate in extracurricular events.

Arts and Crafts

Rashmi exhibits a high level of concentration and patience in all art activities, specializing in drawing village scenery. Her favourite colour, green, complements her meticulous approach to her work.

Games

Rashmi is an energetic girl who plays games with enthusiasm and agility. She excels in running and never gets tired while playing or practicing until the last. Her favourite games are "chain game," "ball in the bucket," and she quickly grasps the rules of new games.
