

Swati is the only child who cares about the whole group. Whatever subject is given to her, she does with full effort and focus. All the children can understand her presentation because she tells with confidence. At times when everyone in the group is feeling sad for says encourages them. Tells them how if they don't play games, they will not be strong enough to cross the dam through swimming, as they will become weak. She is the Adviser of the Class

ENGLISH LANGUAGE

- Swati is making steady progress towards learning the language. Her reading is much better now as well as her writing. She has overcome her initial problems with the 'v' and 'b' confusion. She is working on her pronunciation and improved on her spelling front.

Initially couldn't grasp the meaning of what he used to read but that is changing for the better now.

PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES

She presented the functions of the pancreas and Excretory System. She is a creative child. She imagines and then makes responses. She wants to visit places and pluck flowers and likes fruits. She is good in reading. Her hand writing is beautiful. She is a punctual student. Earlier she used to have stomachache, but now she doesn't have any complain about it

MATH

She does her work nicely. Her writing is also good. She is going to complete Book IV .

HINDI LANGUAGE

She writes beautifully in Hindi. She is a very good in Hini. She also has a good understanding in Hindi Grammar. She doesn't have problem in writing dictation like some other children in the group. She has learnt correct usage of punctuation marks.

ODIA LANGUAGE

Initially Swati was disinterested in many Odia activities. In the last two months of Apr-Sept session she has started liking learning Odia. In the reading and writing, she required more help from diya and friends. She is continuing 2nd Chapter of the kindergarten standard book.

Computer

Swati types slowly but accurate. Her finger placement is good. She likes to draw in paint.

football very well. She has a strong body but needs to improve stamina. She can do different yoga postures. She dribbles and guards well while playing basketball.

Sports

She likes to play all the games and likes to make team while playing. She does not have any problem in playing games. She is improving a lot. Swati also plays

