Report for 2024-25 (Second term)

Introduction

Mahendra is a bright child. He is friendly with everyone, but he has a few friends with whom he likes to spend time. His hobbies are playing football and reading books. Sometimes he goes to the library to read books but most of the time he enjoys playing with his friends in his free time. He loves playing football a lot. His dream is to become a football player. When he goes to the library to read, he enjoys reading books of Geronimo Stilton the most. Mahendra is a strong and healthy boy. He needs to maintain more hygiene and come to school becoming neat and tidy. He also needs to learn to respect his books and keep them arranged on his shelf. He respects the elders but sometimes behaves arrogantly and responds late when he is called or told to do something. He needs to overcome that.

Mathematics

Mahendra is brilliant in mathematics. He assimilates the concepts of the chapters very quickly. His mental calculations are also good. He is continuing with the 5th book and has covered the following chapters: - average, percentage, time, money, lines and angles, triangles, circles, patterns and perimeter. Percentage was a totally new chapter for him, but he learnt it very quickly. He learnt to convert decimals and fractions to percentage; percentage to whole number and fraction. He also solved many word problems related to percentage. Though the chapter was tough, he enjoyed it the most. He likes studying mathematics, but he needs to work harder.

Science

Mahendra is an intelligent child. He has a good memory for remembering and understanding concepts in science. He always tries to answer the questions asked in class and is often the first to do so. He is also a very curious child. He likes to learn and speak about the environment and electronics. He is active, and his performance in the tests is also very good. He is normally focused in class. He participates in group discussions and always asks his doubts without hesitation.

Social Science

Mahendra enjoyed studying about the early kingdoms as he found the varna system very interesting. He made the drawing of the varna system while making the chart. He found the chapter to be interesting as the rule of the kings had begun. He got to know about the origin of the caste system and also the name of various kingdoms of that period. While completing the chapter, he got more information about the early kingdoms. In the debate, he was one of the first ones to present his point. He enjoyed learning about the benefits of being in a village and also in a town. While solving the questions, he himself could comprehend as well as find the correct answers. By reading the comics about the important figures that were in the book, he was able to understand the chapter better.

While reading the chapter he does not face any difficulty but sometimes when he is unable to understand any term, he always asks.

Hindi

Mahendra exhibits commendable diligence in his studies, demonstrating fluency in reading stories and a strong comprehension of their content. He also tries to understand them. Additionally, he has good reading. His enthusiasm for reading is evident through his enjoyment of both free reading and weekly group reading sessions, during which he participates actively. After reading, he takes dictation where his spellings are good. Mahendra has made notable progress in following structured study materials. He has finished the "Gunjan Book 5," and cleared it by giving a small test. Now he is doing the 6th Abhyas Pustak, he loves to solve the questions given in the book. If he is not able to understand, then he always asks. When he is given homework, he sometimes doesn't do it. In grammar some of the chapters he finds difficult to understand. He has to improve his handwriting. On 21st of February he had performed a short play, where he had got the role of Mira's father. His voice was loud and clear on the stage.

English

Mahendra enjoys the English class a lot. He understands the language well and is also able to reply back in a full sentence. He takes interest in reading and writing. He puts in less effort in improving his speaking skill. He loves reading novels of Enid Blyton and also has fun reading comic books at his free time. He understands the stories quite well although he is unable to understand a few unfamiliar words. For that he refers to a dictionary or asks the teachers. He has made significant improvement in his reading in the last few months. He also loves studying grammar and enjoys solving grammar exercises. He completed his 3rd class grammar book and has begun the 4th class book. He has a proper understanding of most of the components of grammar such as sentences, nouns, adjectives, articles, verbs, adverbs, etc. He needs more clarity in conjunctions. He has completed sentences and nouns in the 4th class book. He could answer the questions quite easily. Now he is practising questions on verbs. He also solves questions from a comprehension book of class 3. He enjoys reading the stories and poems in the book as he understands most of them quite easily. He is able to answer the questions given at the end of the chapters properly.

Dance

Mahendra enjoys dance class and is learning Kathak. He has learnt the basic steps but finds some difficulty in learning new ones. He also performed Dashavatar for Sports Day and liked it very much.

Arts

Mahendra enjoys art class very much. He likes to create any drawing given to him and colours them using coloured pencils. He has made stars and balls and completed a drawing coloured with warm and cool shades. He spends most of his time drawing. This year, he has improved his drawing skills, though he finds nature drawing difficult.

Puzzles

Mahendra has started the 1000 pieces puzzles of Taj Mahal in a group and with his friends he loves to fix the pieces. He asks his friends to fix the borders and starts the other pieces. He loves to do puzzles because he finds puzzles to be very useful for his mind

Games

Mahendra loves doing sports activities and is regular for games. He is in the Beryllium group during games. He does his running sincerely on reaching the field. Then he prepares his body for the games by joint and warm-up exercises. He plays different games such as football, basketball, volleyball and some fun games. His favourite games are football and basketball. He is unable to run very fast in football or basketball, but he plays by passing the ball to his team members. He usually likes to play as a goalkeeper in football.

Yogasana

Shramdaan

Mahendra likes to indulge himself in all types of shramdaan activities such as toilet cleaning, hostel cleaning, school cleaning, gardening and work in the kitchen. He does all the work assigned to him properly in all the different shramdaan. He enjoys doing shramdaan in the kitchen the most. Once he finishes his cleaning work in one area, he moves to another area for cleaning if he sees dirt there, even if the teachers won't tell him. In gardening, he likes to do digging.

Satsang

Mahendra tries to be punctual for satsang, but he gets late many a times. He takes less interest in satsang. He has got a good voice, but he sings only if he likes the song. He takes more liking of patriotic songs than bhajans, so he sings them openly and confidently. Mahendra is able to learn new songs quite fast as he can memorise the lyrics and tunes easily. He takes some interest and learns the songs but once he learns the songs and if they become old, he loses interest in singing them. When he sits for meditation closing his eyes, he struggles sitting erect with closed eyes.

Celebrations

Mahendra shows less interest in celebrating functions and festivals. He dislikes performing programmes on the stage, but he participates in them with his group. He takes part in singing, drama or dance. He celebrated by lighting diyas in the ashram and his hostel. Celebrating Children's Day was a lot of fun for Mahendra. He enjoyed swimming and kayaking a lot at the picnic. Before he went for these activities, he helped to collect some strong sticks from the jungle to put markers of limits in the reservoir. Kayaking was a thrilling experience for him as it was his first time. He liked eating pulau but didn't like the taste of baked vegetables which was a new dish. He took part in a sargam singing and performed it on 29th November along with his classmates. On Christmas, he sang a carol 'Its Christmas' with the other boys of his group. He enjoyed singing the song and gave a good performance. He then took part in a Hindi play and performed it on 21st February- The Mother's birthday. He played the role of young Mirra's (The Mother) father. He spoke his dialogues quite well and acted as an angry father as per the role. Although Mahendra takes less interest in performing programmes, he loves eating sweets and other tasty food that is given on the special occasions.

On Holi, Mahendra

had more fun eating delicious food items and having a mud bath than playing with colours. He enjoyed eating chaat and drinking lassi the most.
