- Circle time:

- In circle time he sits nicely with closed eyes. But he only sometimes chants. He does not have an interest in singing. He can't speak long sentences, so we have to split a sentence for him. He tries to pronounce correctly. When didi tells him to sing a song, he does not sing and just stands. He needs a lot of attention.

- Language:(Hindi)
- His pronunciation is not good. He listens to stories nicely, but can't answer. He narrates incidents like when he comes school, what does he do in the school, about his home, what his mother told him, etc. He knows names of some fruits, flowers, animals and vegetables through language games.

English:

Santosh is a very quiet boy. Now he has started responding in the group. He tries to speak. He finds it difficult to repeat a very simple sentence fully. So, we have to break a sentence into words or phrases. He likes to sing rhymes but is reluctant to do actions. He takes time to remember the words or rhymes. He enjoys listening to stories and sits quietly. His speech needs to be refined and also finds it difficult to pronounce several words correctly.
