Vikram Jani

April 2018 - March 2019

Date of Birth - 30th January 2009

Vikram is a cute little boy who is intelligent, energetic and playful. He comes to school regularly. Though he shifted from gratitude to humility, still he has a good rapport with all the kids in the group.

But he is a short tempered child. He can't tolerate anybody telling something against him. He quickly protests. Sometimes his anger leads to fighting with other kids. But it does not happen often.

He does not spend time to clean himself and his belongings. Sometimes he does cleaning just so as not to get scolding from the elders. Most of the time he gets late for the classes.

Now he has to learn punctuality. He likes to spend most of his time in reading Chhota Bheem or Tintin. He is academically strong and can cope up with other children easily.

Project

Vikram is good at understanding concepts. Sometimes becomes lazy during the class.
He was good at tests given in botany. He is also doing well in civics.

He took topics on Akshardham temple and Amer fort. He shows good performances in geography as well.

He is able to attend all the long and short types of questions in the tests. Sometimes he brings the highest marks in the test.

Maths

Vikram is good at maths. He is doing standard 6th book. He is good at understanding the problems.

But he becomes lazy while doing maths in the afternoon classes. He needs to improve his handwriting.

He often comes to ask if he is stuck in a problem. He is doing Integers and has completed Number System, Whole numbers, Factors and Multiples.

Music

Vikram takes a lot of interest in flute. But always comes late for the class.

His blowing is good and can play the exercises with ease.

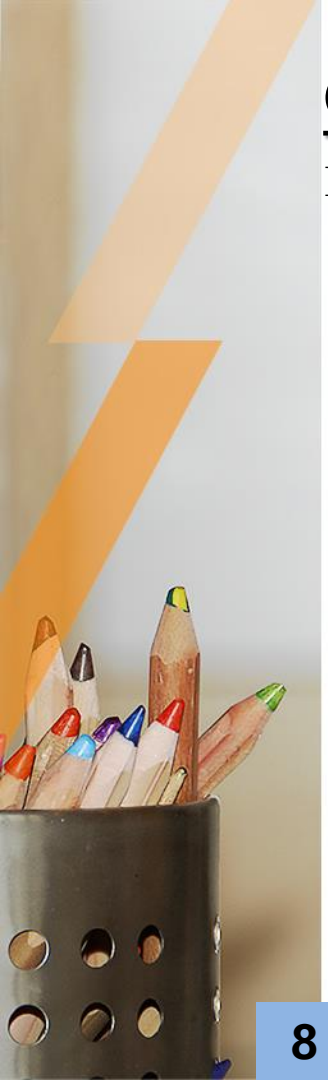
He attended a music workshop in September and gave a good performance.

Dance

Vikram takes interest in dance and participated in group dance. He finds it difficult to catch new steps. He tries to do well. On Independence Day he had joined in dance on Rang de basanti song.

Art

He is very interested for art and craft. He completes his drawings patiently. He likes to do shading, colouring and painting. His notebook is full of Rangoli designs, nature related drawings and cartoons. The human figures which he makes are proportional and beautiful. But does not take care of his notebook. On 25th December he made a nice snowman in craft. He learnt it from the teacher and did it independently with his partner.



Celebration

For 31st December he acted on a joke where he had the role of a Doctor.

He acted very well. And said his dialogues with a loud and confident voice. He added a few dialogues on his own to make it funnier.

On Mother's birthday he participated in the play "Jagat Janani Shrimaa". Here he had the role of a teacher. His voice was clear and confident while speaking his dialogues.

He memorized his dialogues on time. After the play he was given a small worksheet on this play. He wrote all answers correctly.
It means he was the most attentive child during the play. He remembered everyone's dialogues.

Sports Day

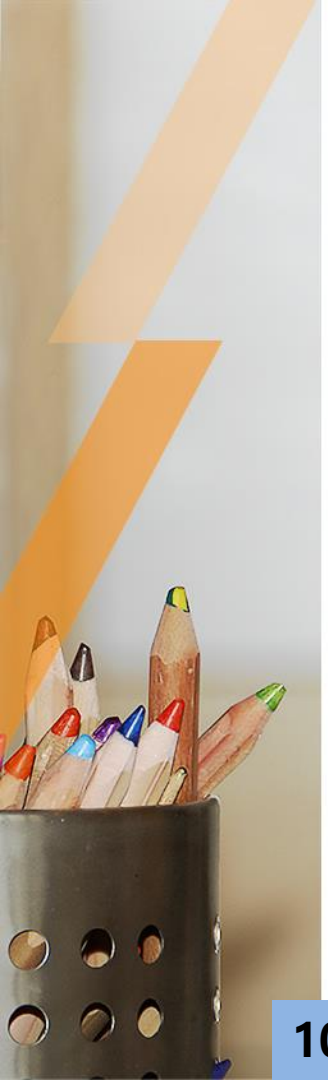
We played kho-kho match on 18th January. There were 13 players in each group. B group won the kho-kho match. It was fun playing.

the physical demonstration day I liked all the events.

What I liked most were the jokes of Pranjal Bhaiya, Bhuvan Bhaiya, Tulsa didi and Chandrama didi. I also liked the theme dance by Aspiration group and Pyramids by Aspiration and New Creation group.

In the 200m relay race I came second in the first and second race.

In the batten relay race there were four teams and four members in each team. In my team, there were Radhika, Shampa and Amita. We came third.



In musical chairs everyone was running. While running I felt like I was playing fire on the mountain, run run run. I got tired of running, that's why I got out in the middle of the game.

I can ride cycle properly. We are holding flags and doing pyramids on cycles. I can do cycling while leaving my hands. My 5 friends Ratnesh, Vijay, Shankar , Mohit and Surendra and I are doing pyramids on one cycle.

I amalso improving in jumping over double ramps. While jumping over the ramp I feel like I am flying.

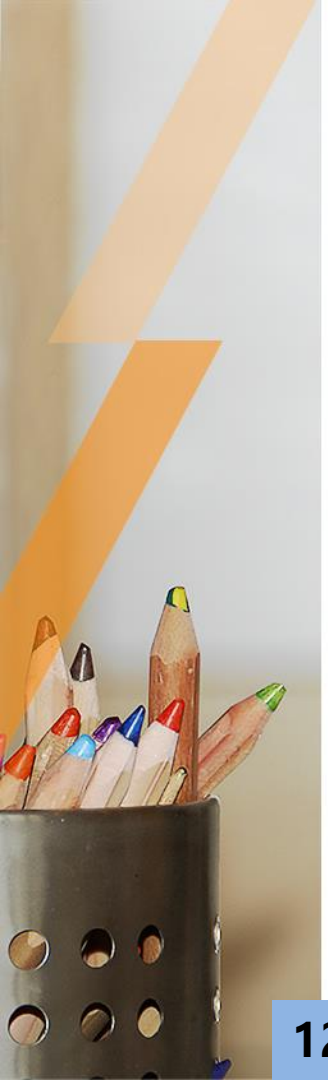
Trip

We liked the rajasthan trip. Yes, we were tired in some places. I liked Delhi, Jodhpur and Gulabpura the most. These were the best because the rooms and toilets were very clean and there were peacocks and peahens there.

That's why I liked these 3 places the most. I liked Akshardham temple because I saw water show and robotics show and I also liked the lotus temple because it was as a lotus and had 29 petals.

I behaved in some places properly, but in some places I didn't behave properly. I made a mistake in Jaipur. In Jaipur I locked Vijay in the toilet and in Delhi I didn't put my clothes to dry.

My physical health was good during the trip. I disliked Kachoris on the trip. I want to go on trips again because I want to know about different places.



Computer

Vikram likes the computer class. He enjoys typing and painting.

He likes to draw different things in MS Paint.

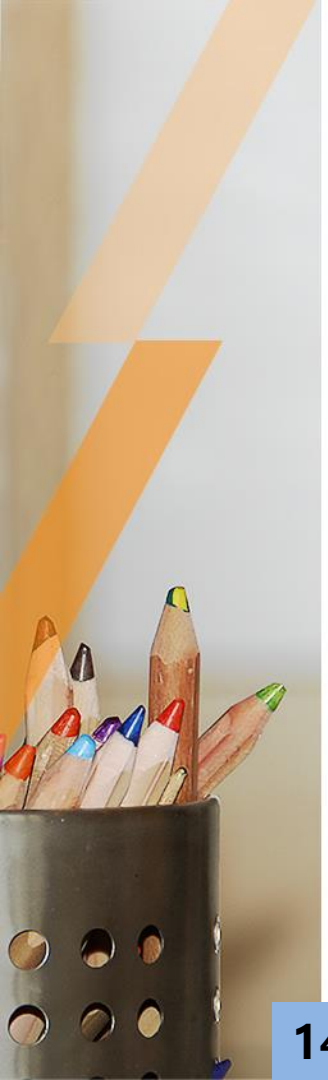
He is curious and is able to use the tools properly.

HINDI

Vikram is a very intelligent boy. His handwriting is also good.His reading skill is very good.He helps other children.

He can understand the work and do it, but very rarely he comes to the teacher for checking his notebook. He has finished 4th class book and is doing 5th class 8is about to finish the book.

In grammar he is doing 4th class book.He has just started the book and is doing it with enthusiasm.



English

Vikram is a brilliant boy. He was far ahead of his group (gratitude) and was promoted to a higher group (humility). In English also he has shown a tremendous improvement.

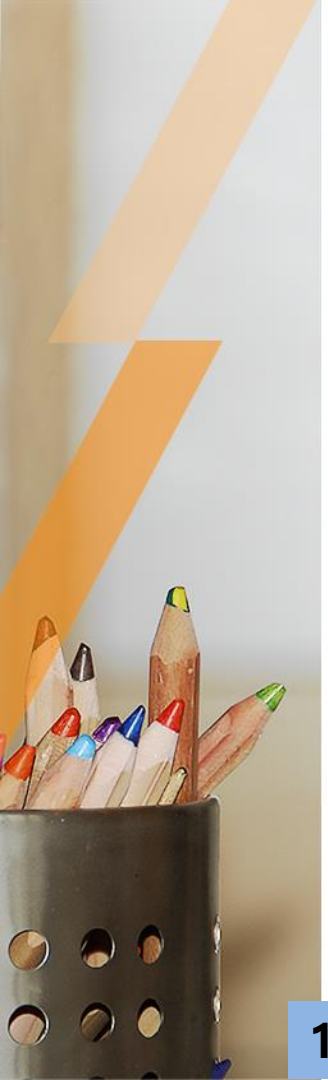
His reading and comprehension as well as vocabulary are very good. Even though he joined the group recently, he can compete with the other children.

His spellings are really remarkable. He loves reading. Most of his free time he spends in reading. He loves comics and loves to read Amar Chitra Katha.

He is very good at creative writing and can write marvellous stories based on fantasy, imagination and there is always a moral.

Vikram is very good at role play. He can remember the dialogues very easily and most of the time he enacts the hero character in the plays.

He is expressive and confident. The books he read this year-



1. Sneezing powder
2. The cuckoo in the clock
3. Gulliver's travels
4. The magic needle
5. The horse and his boy
Narnia
6. The wishing wand
7. The goblin hat
The pig with green sports

Odia

Vikram is a very good learner. His reading, writing and understanding levelsare good.

He thinks thoroughly before writing.

He completed Book – IV, and had a good performance.
