Pankaj Muduli

Date of Birth:- 24th October 2010

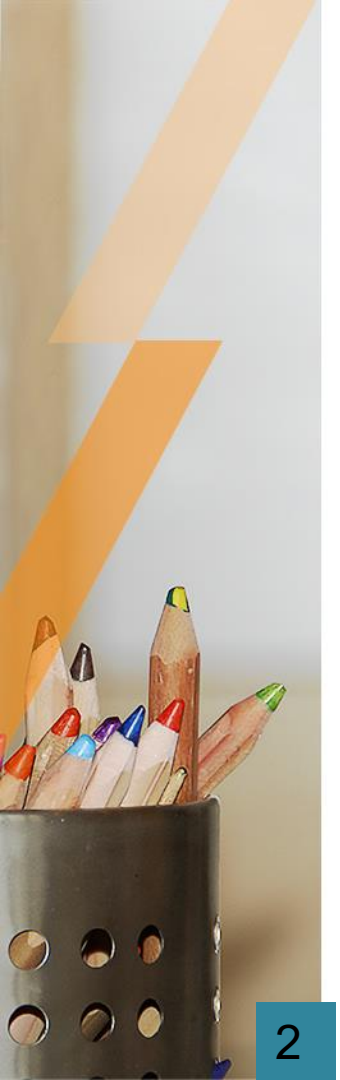
April 2018 – March 2019

Child's Individuality:

Pankaj is an average student in studies. He comes to school regularly. He does his work nicely with interest but his mind is not very sharp.

He catches very slowly whatever is taught in the group. He always sits quietly in the group.

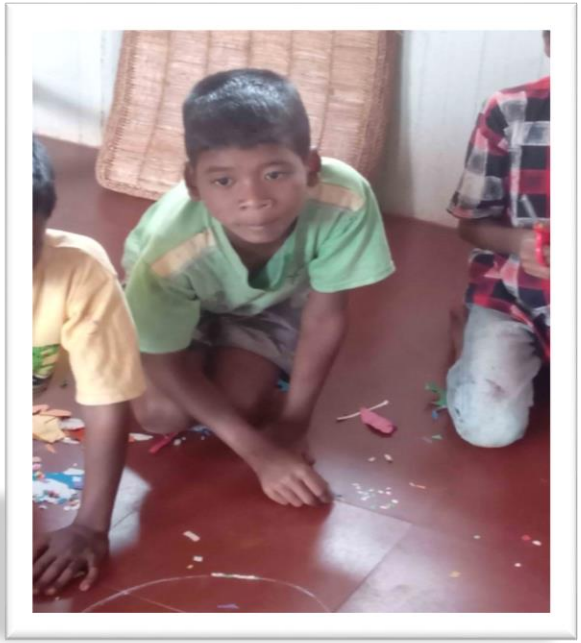
He never disturbs others in study time. He speaks softly with everyone. He is good with everyone. Sometime he tells didi funny jokes about his friends.



Chanting:

In chanting time he sits properly.
His pronunciation is good.

He knows many chantings.



Story Telling:

He listens to the story very nicely. Sometimes he makes funny stories from his own mind.
He likes to listen to the story about king of forest - lion. He likes to listen to both Hindi &English stories.

Dancing:

He is not good in dance that's why he stands in the last line in the dance programmes. This year he took part in a few dances.

Singing:

He likes to sing songs. Sometimes he finds it difficult to remember long songs with actions.

He knows some Hindi songs & English rhymes. He always sings song with his friends.

PROJECT:

In topic time he listens carefully what the did is teaches. He tries to understand & remember whatever didis teach.

PLAY:

He is comfortable with short lines in the plays.
He enjoys the plays& speaks out his dialogs with confidence with a smile.

In tree topic, he said that plants help us very confidently.

In insect topic he understood & remembered how the insect help in agriculture.

He also participated in the presentations of butterfly, ant and ladybird.

On our school's birth day, the group did the last presentation on useful insects.

In this play, he took the character of a spider. He was appreciated by all for his well-deliver ed dialogues.

He learnt his dialogues within a short period of time.

In early man topic, he was a little shy to act like an early man but was enjoying it when others were acting in the group.

He has made good pictures of them. He liked to draw cycles and made a cycle by rolling papers.

He learnt different parts of a cycle. Initially he h ad no idea of how a cycle works. But slowly he remembered and understood the process. He is a little slow in remembering things. So he need s individual attention.

In India topic, he learnt the names of different states and their capitals. He knew the name of neighbouring countries of India, rivers, dances and languages of India.

He needed more repetition to remember all the names.

He also studied about the festivals celebrated In dia by different religion, states and nationally.

In solar system, he was more interested to watch the video than listening to the discussion in the group. Still he learnt the names of planets. He was enthusiastic in making the model of all the planets.

In Human body topic, he studied about the internal as well as external parts of our body.

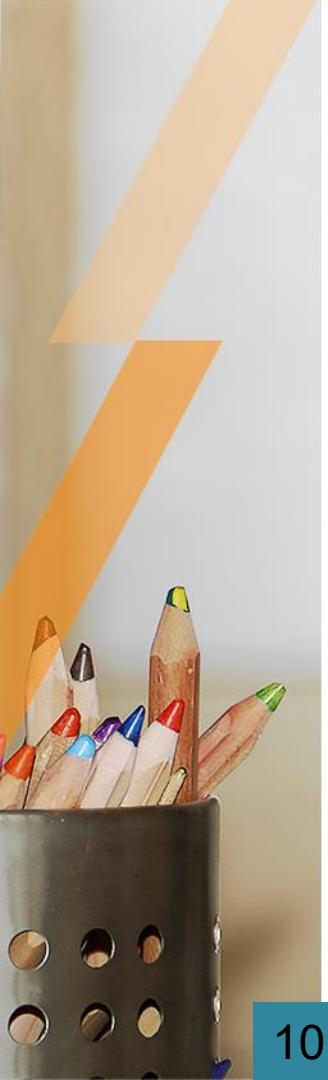
He took time to remember the internal parts of our body and their functions. But when he tried to understand the functions and parts of different systems of our body , he found it challenging to share about on system of the body in front of his friends.

In animal topic, he got to know about the classification of animals based on eating habit as well as their habitat. He was trying his best to read the chart of animals breaking the words related to animals. He enjoyed a lot making a story and using puppets in storytelling.

In celebrations, on 15th august he performed a dance and learnt a patriotic song of Bhagat Singh.

On Rakshabandhan, he made a rakhi and tied the thread on an older child. On Krishna Janmastami, he took part in a play and acted as a villager.

On the Ganesh Chaturthi, he did the role of villager in Ganesha play where he acted nicely. On Christmas, he learnt a song and participated in play called “The Baby Wake Up the Sun” and acted as a bee. On Mother’s birthday, he acted as butterfly in “Courage”play.



Skill Work:

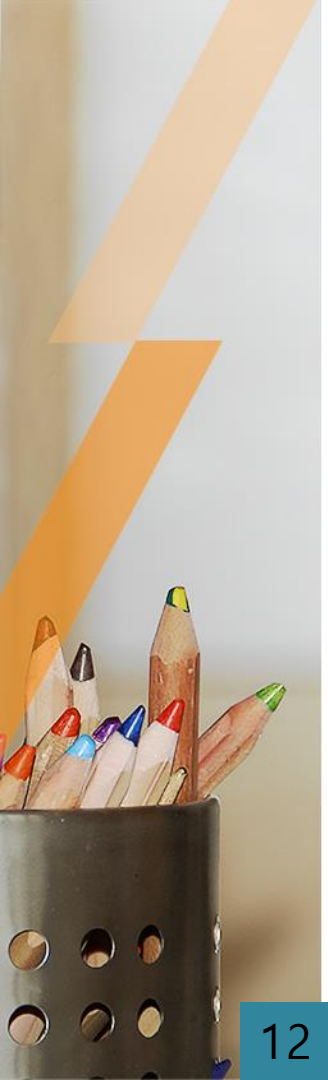
He can do paper folding. He needs more practice and more explanation to understand the process of art wor k.

Many time he draws boats only. His colour sense is good. His hand writing is not good. In clay modelli ng he makes boat & mobile phon e only. In puzzles time, he always k eeps his work incomplete & disturb others.

GAMES AND SPORTS:

He takes interest to play outdoor games. He likes to do running, jogging and do exercises. The indoor games, he likes to play memory games.

He can also run fast. He can balance things quit well on his head, but his spoon and ball balance is not good. On Sports Day, he joined in aerobic dance and enjoyed doing it. He is learning skating. He enjoys doing cycling.



MATH:

Pankaj is doing Math from Book 2. Most of the time, he doesn't concentrate in his own work. He forgets quickly - if any concept is explained to him he understands and can answer in that time only; if same thing is asked after two days, he forgets. He has learnt the number names till 1000 but is not clear in writing. He has studied about the different units of measurement but still needs more practice to get clarity.

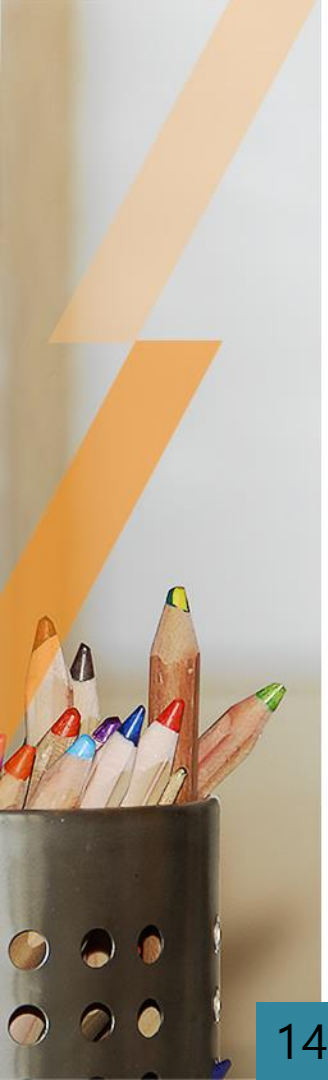
He has learnt carrying addition but he finds it difficult in subtraction and needs objects to solve them.

He can arrange the number in ascending and descending order of 2 digit numbers.

He can recognise coins and rupees but finds it difficult to convert rupees into paisa.

He has learnt Roman numerals.

He took a long time to understand the pattern of Roman numerals. He can tell the correct time after seeing the clock.



ENGLISH:

Pankaj puts effort to communicate in English in full sent ences but grammatically they are not correct. He loves to do loud reading.

He has to work more on his pronunciation. He reads slowly breaking the words with appropriate sounds. He is also fond of doing plays. He learns his dialogue after long practice and he enjoys trying repeatedly.

He is able to make small stories in English and illustrates them in his own way. He sings songs loudly. He can make a story from his own idea but needs help in making the sentences correctly.

HINDI:

He sits quietly in the group. He is doing ‘Bhasha Drishti 1’ book.

Pankaj’s Hindi dictation is good but ma kes mistakes sometimes.

He has learnt to write the mantras. He can read full sentences from reading books and tries to learn words through reading. He likes to listen to stories that are told in the class.
