

BRISHTI KRISANI

DOB-24th December'05

Report -2023-24 (first term)

Attendance-179 out of 183 days

Introduction

I am Brishti Krisani, a 17-year-old who will turn 18 on December 24. I completed my 12th grade in June'23, focusing on painting as my last subject, and have enrolled in the first year of graduation at Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU).

Currently studying BEGC-104 with bhaiya, while seeking guidance from Sandeep Sir for environmental studies. Additionally, I am contributing three hours a day to volunteering in the school, dedicating two hours to English in the morning and one hour to dance and painting in the afternoon at 2:30.

Shramdan

I actively participate in Shramdan, belonging to group C, starting my duties at 6:30 in the morning and completing at 7:30 am. Engaging in various tasks such as kitchen work, toilet cleaning, hostel maintenance, gardening, and school cleaning, I find the kitchen particularly enjoyable. Although the early hours can be challenging, I persistently contribute to preparing breakfast and sometimes lunch, including cutting vegetables. I also actively engage in other areas like toilet cleaning, school cleaning, gardening, and hostel cleaning, showcasing a strong commitment to community service.

Kitchen: During kitchen duty, I arrive at 6:00 am, working until 7:30 am. Despite sleepiness, I diligently cut vegetables, and surprisingly, I enjoy cutting onions, a task often avoided by others in my group.

Toilet Cleaning: In toilet cleaning, I meticulously clean toilets, bathrooms, wash basins, and other areas, addressing tasks such as removing clogged food in basins and sweeping. I actively participate in maintaining cleanliness and hygiene in shared spaces.

School Cleaning: When engaged in school cleaning, I contribute to sweeping corridors, staircases, and picking up scattered garbage, predominantly plastics. I also undertake additional tasks once the assigned cleaning duties are completed.

Gardening and Hostel Cleaning: In gardening, I actively contribute to maintaining the school's green spaces. For hostel cleaning, I undertake responsibilities such as sweeping common areas, staircases, corridors, and the cleaning of drains, exemplifying a comprehensive approach to cleanliness.

Celebration

Participating in various celebrations, I find joy in contributing to the decoration of the stage for festivals such as Ganesh Puja.

Additionally, I actively engage in dance performances, and during Raksha Bandhan, I participated by tying rakhis, including to Satrupa

Games

Engaging in games daily at 5:15, I enjoy playing with teachers and, on Mondays, organizing activities for the Boron group, incorporating running and exercises. Prior to games, I conduct warm-up sessions to ensure an active and energetic participation.

Teacher's note- Brishti Krisani demonstrates a commendable commitment to both academic pursuits and community service, actively engaging in various activities and contributing positively to her school environment.
