PRANAV KRISANI

DOB: 9 JUNE 2013

April 2018 - March 19

Pranav is a smart boy. He helps his friends. He stays in the hostel and always tries to speak in English with older children and guests. Pranav behaves like a monkey. He is very kind hearted.

His best friend is Devendra. He always shares with his friends. He likes to wear new clothes, but does not bother about their being clean.

He cannot arrange his own things and orders his friend Devendra to do so. He is an enthusiastic child.

Music/songs: He likes all the songs we sing. When he learns a new song, he always sings it the whole day.

At chanting time he sits properly and very quietly, closing his eyes. His posture is good and body movements also.

He likes fast music and starts dancing with his friends. He has learnt many Sanskrit chants. His Sanskrit pronunciation is also clear and loud.

Topic:* He studied 5 topics, like family members, five senses and trees. He did well, but cannot always answer correctly. He guesses and replies to teacher.

He likes songs related to the topic. He enjoys doing project work. His favorite song is ‘our five senses are really well’. He knows lots of facts about vegetables and common insects with their body parts.

Art/craft: His favorite craftwork is paper folding. He tells didi, ‘We will make aeroplane’. He enjoys doing all skill activities with interest. He fills the colours very gently and nicely.

Math: Pranav is good in math. He is very good in place value and is quick in mental maths. He can also calculate with objects.

He can do forward and backward counting properly, but when didi asks the before number, he gives the after number.

He is not good in addition. He is quick in skip counting of 2 and 3. He knows the days and months. He can tell the names of shapes.

Pranav gives the answers when others are asked, but when he is asked, he becomes quiet. . He is confused between addition and subtraction.

When didi tells through a story, Pranav is interested in it and tries to answer, but takes time. He is clear in measurements- cubit, handspan and palmspan. He is not clear in breaking number. He can break till 30.

English: Pranav is an intelligent boy and in the group activities and remembers names of trees, body parts, vegetables, sense organs and senses and fruits.

He tries to tell the story in English. Didi has taught “Invitation poem” for Sri Aurobindo’s birthday. Pranav learnt the dialogues quickly and did the role.

His favourite rhyme is “Oh sweet mother”. He is still learning letters. He can recognize the letters of his name.

He always tries to speak in English. He knows all the alphabets and their sounds. He is very good in drama.

He delivers the dialogues very clearly and loudly. His pronunciation is very good. He enjoyed the drama ‘ho ho and ha ha’.

He likes listening to stories of adventure. He listens to stories very attentively and answers the questions asked by the teacher related to the stories. He can makes and tells his own stories.

Hindi: He is good in Hindi but cannot make many sentences. His pronunciation is good and clear. He tells stories very nicely, but does not complete them and makes mistakes in many words because he doesn't know new words.

He can recognize the first letter of his name and also of his friends'. He picks up very quickly.

His memory is good in language activities. He can think very well but he gets distracted very fast.

He can write most of the Hindi letters and knows them by heart. He can also read without matras of Hindi and write them well.

Celebrations: Pranav is a very smart boy. He is a little actor of our group. Any performance, he acts very nicely and confidently on the stage. He always tells didi, ‘I will do some new drama’.

He participates in all group programmes and school functions. We did Hindi play on Janmashtami. His role was of ‘Maakhan chor’.

Games: Pranav enthusiastically participates in the games. At games time, he always gives suggestions about what to play and where to play.

His body is very flexibile and stamina is also good. He is small in size, but likes to play football with older children.

He has learnt many postures in yogasanas perfectly. He performed yogasana on sports day very nicely.

PRANAV KRISANI