MANISH (MAHENDRA) MUDULI

DOB: 7TH MARCH 2012

APRIL 2018- MARCH 19

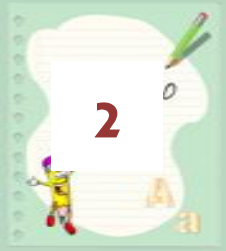
He is Bheem of our group. He comes to school everyday. He is always neat and clean.

He acts like a joker at times. He is like a pillar and other friends say, ‘he stands like a pillar, sits like a stone’. He is a very smart and intelligent boy. His best friend is Sanjeet.

He has a good and sharing nature with his friends but at times he kicks other friends. When didi sees this, he stands like a statue, very quietly. Sometimes he wants to act funny, and then he becomes Charlie Chaplin.

Manish is a shy boy. While attending the class he talks freely, but when didi asks any question, he doesn’t say anything.

In tree topic he drew banyan tree and in sense to pic he drew the picture of ear and said “I can hear music with my ear”. He said that the banyan tree i s very big, the leaves are big and the trunk is thick . In other topics like insects, vegetables and first a id, he participated in all the activities but doesn’t r eply anything.



Music: Manish sits properly in the chanting time, but he doesn’t ch ant and just mumbles in his mouth. During singing time also he doe sn’t sing. He enjoys all action related songs.

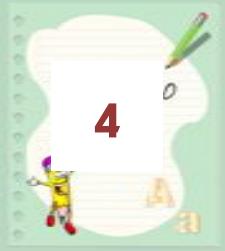
Art/craft: Manish can do art and painting. He can do paper folding and cutting and pasting. His fine motor skills are good.

When he is working, he sits properly and does ni cely. His drawing skills are developing. He can dr aw vegetables, fruits, vehicles, mountains, trees, leaves, flowers in the picture book and doesn’t n eed didi’s help.

Math: He is intelligent. He is a genius in math. He listen s properly and answers quickly. He has learnt 1 to 100 f orward and backward counting, after, before and betwe en numbers. He is good in four operations.

He knows tens and ones in place value, foot span, and palm span, arm cubit, days of the week, months and clo ck.

He can write the numbers till 100. He can mentally add and subtract with ease. He knows the multiplication table.



He is clear in seeing the time and knows t he minute hand, hour hand, second hand.

English: Manish can understand when didis speak to him in English.

When didi ask him something, then he doesn’ t answer. In letters, he can recognize the lette rs in his name “MANISH”.

Didi’s taught them “Invitation poem” for Sri Auro-bindo’s birthday. He doesn’t tell stories and takes time to answer.

His favorite rhyme is “my name is Timshi Machchali”. He is a very sincere boy who sits quietly and listens to the story. He tries to speak in English everytime with didi.

He is very interested in drama. He likes to take a ny role given to him. It is very difficult for him to tell the dialogues but he tells slowly and tries. H e can recognize the letters and knows the sound s also.

Hindi: He is good in Hindi. He concentrates in Hindi class. His pronunciation is clear. Manish is one of the bright children of this group.

He doesn’t sit nicely during class time. He has to work hard to recog nize the Hindi alphabets. He can read words without matras and writ e the Hindi letters.

Celebrations: He likes do dance with music and enjoys it. He mostly likes to dance with rock music. On 15th August he nicely performed a dance and recited Sri Aurobindo's "Invitation"poem.

On Janmashtami he took part in the drama "Maakhan Chor". He feels shy on the stage.

Games: His physical health is good. He likes to play fun gam es in the sandpit and chain ga me. He likes to play energetic games. In physical activities he can’t do properly but tries to do better. He does cartwheel.

He is good at athletics, balan cing, relay, and yoga asana. His body posture is good. He is a very strong boy but som etimes he becomes lazy. If a nybody gives him some work , he replies, ‘I can’t do anythi ng’.

MANISH (MAHENDRA) MUDULI