

Nilambar is a small and sweet boy.

In the last 6 months he has become more responsible.

He is always ready to do work and reminds his friends to do their work. He seems to be more interested if activity given requires riding a cycle.

On Pranjal Bhaiya's birthday he stepped forward to sing classical songs with other friends. It was nice to hear him and see him on stage as a classical singer.

He takes care of his clothes and things.

Also he is not as emotional as before, doesn't weep when told of his mistakes. He does become serious for a short while.

Sometimes he is stubborn, doesn't say sorry and takes a long time to understand the issue at hand.

He is being choosy in learning new thing. He starts the work and observes for few days. If he finds that the activity needs a lot of silence and concentration, needs to be done without getting distracted, he leaves the place.

He has lost interest in tabla, dance, art and craft work.

He needs encouragement for art and craft class also. But on Mother's birthday he made a nice big picture of Mother.

He joined the juggling class but left it after a few days because he was very playful, could not concentrate.

In the group he has started speaking in English with the diyas. Earlier he had a lot of problem in reading and writing. So he was facing a lot of problem in project work but now he is improving both in reading and writing. But needs to better his handwriting.

PROJECT WORK - Very sensitive and needs a lot of positive encouragement. Poor writing and gets distracted in the company of his friends – specially Mohan and Vivek.

Ocean: Nilambar was involved in finding out how oceans are formed and other such answers from the encyclopedia. Initially he found it tough. Later he was able to write about formation of oceans on his own.

His writing shows that he is good in visualizing evaporation of the hot of molten lava, falling of rain drops when it cools in the space etc.

But he explains orally better than he writes. He needs to improve his spellings.

Mountain: In this topic he learnt - What are mountains? What types of mountains are there? How do they form? “The formation of mountain” was a bit difficult for him to understand but when it was explained through objects it became clear. He then made his own model to explain the mountains’ formation to the group. He worked very sincerely, was engrossed and creative in his work.

Desert: In this topic first he did the geography part such as the equator, climate zones, and tropics. After which we moved to plants, and animals. He was stuck on the question of the formation of deserts. Concepts of high pressure, rain shadow, dry air and ocean currents were resolved through experiments.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE - Nilambar has improved a lot in the last six months be it his spellings or grammar. He diligently works at improving his spelling mistakes.

He is eager in class, doing his work and writing long stories with a lot of creativity. His writing capabilities have improved but still needs to learn more.

He is a little reluctant at speaking English and speaks with an unsure attitude, always conscious of himself. Can however, get moody and not do anything.

SANSKRIT LANGUAGE - He reads properly but he is rather slow in reading. He listens carefully, makes proper sentences.

While translating from Hindi he makes mistakes of Kriya Shabd.

ODIA LANGUAGE - Nilambar reaches the class in time. He is a sincere student. He can read nicely.

If he needs help he asks. He has good writing spirit. In every class he shows eagerness to write speedily.

He listens to story and dictation carefully and but his expression through speech and writing is rough and haphazard. He needs to keep patience while studying.

MATH: Nilambar is working hard but his understanding is very poor. He just does what he is told, he does not put effort to understand. He easily forgets everything that he learns. Everything seems new to him. He needs to be explained every bit of the problem. He is currently doing Class IV in Mathematics. He is sometimes very lazy to understand. But when he understands well he becomes very happy and does his best.

HINDI LANGUAGE - He reads properly but slowly. His spellings are also good, he rarely makes a mistake. He writes as per the pronunciation. He likes reading and writing stories. In Hindi grammar, he understands with full concentration. We are focusing on improving his spellings, handwriting and reading properly.

GAMES AND SPORTS - Nilambar is quite athletic when it comes to games. He has shown a good presence of mind in Volleyball and is quick to get the ball.

His passing has improved, in Basketball as well though he still needs to involve his teammates more. He shoots well in Basketball and has good stamina as well.

In Football, he can play a good striker as he is able to cut swiftly and run fast towards the goal.

On Sport's Day he participated in Acrobatics, Football, Circus, and Skating. Nilambar, for his initial struggle, came out a much more confident footballer.
