Shampa Muduli

April 2018 – March 2019

Date of Birth - 13th July 2008

Shampa is always well behaved and content. She is a beaming child who tends to laugh and play happily with her friends. She takes care of her belongings, and keeps them in an organized manner. Whenever she makes a mistake, she accepts without hesitation. She has a slow pace in learning compared to others. But she does not give up.

Though she takes time in understanding concepts, still she Markesan effort to learn. When she has a desire to do something, she asks in a sweet voice "Didi can I do this work". She becomes joyful if she gets a positive answer and does not mind if she is not permitted.

Project

Shampa is not able to concentrate in the class. She sometimes gets busy with the stuffs she brings and looks around in the class. She did well in the tests given for Botany. She is good in civics and needs to improve her handwriting.

She took the topics Kirti Stambh, Vijay Stambh, Qutub Minar, Chittoragarh, Pushkar Lake, Thar Heritage Museum, Gadsisar Lake, etc. With Mohit. She was not able to draw the historical monuments properly. So she was told to collect the information about them and remember.

Maths

She is doing 4th book maths- the concept of measurement. She takes more time to understand concepts of geometry. She finds it difficult to understand mensuration. She has covered factors and multiples but is not clear. She is confused between factors and multiples.

In fraction, she is able to recognize like, unlike, proper, improper and mixed but she tends to forget in a few days.

While solving word problems, she reads the problems independently and needs help to understand the proble ms and which operations should be used to solve.

Music

She is able to play the seven notes on flute. Her blowing has to improve.

While playing exercises, she tries to remember the pattern and play. In Septemberr she attended a music workshop and participated in orchestra.

Dance

Shampa likes to do all types of dances. She has rhythm sense and tries to do her best on stage.

On Independence Day, she had performed on the song ‘ Rang De Basanti’. She also participated on 31stDecember.

Art

She likes art class the most. She has finished one notebook with drawings.

Sometimes she draws like babies and wastes time and sometimes very beautifully she expresses herself through art.

On 25th December she made a nice Snow man with her partner.

Sports

Sports are fun activity for her and she never misses. Once she reaches the field, she does all the exercises, running and games according to instruction. She has a good speed in running. She likes to play all the games happily. But now she has to practice basketball a lot as she needs to improve in Dribbling, catching and shooting. Nowadays she is practicing cycling on uneven roads. She does not have fear of falling. In a few days she will be confident.

We played kho-kho and we lost and I felt sad. We played musical chairs and I was soon out. On sports day we played batten relay. I did not play nicely.

When I was running, I was tired and could not run and I came last, I felt sad.

I have improved hoopla dance. I can do it myself. I can sit on Romani's and Amita’s arms. I can rotate and control two hooplas. I can walk and do hoopla. I am not afraid and I feel good.

Celebrations

15th August- Shampa was given the role of a mother of a simple family. She did bhangra dance on the song Rang De Basanti, and sang Rastra Aaradhan and Lab pe aati he Dua banke.

Krishna Janmastami:

Ganesh Puja: She played sargam on her flute.

Rakhi: She made rakhis for her friends and tied on Jagrati.

For 31stDecember she acted on a joke where she took the ro le of a son. She was a wonderful actor. She had to cry and run in the play, which she did very well. She also learnt her dialogues soon.

On Mother's birthday she participated in the play "Jagat Janani Shri maa". Here she had the role of Mirra at the age of 21. She took a number of days to learn her dialogues.

She also needed a lot of encouragement and practice to bring the serious expression in her scene. And each time she would take the suggestions positively and did her best.

She was looking quite pretty in the play. After the play she was given a small worksheet on this play. But she couldn't write the answers except one or two.

Trip

Yes I liked the Rajasthan trip. I was not tired on long trip.

I liked Akshardham the most because I saw fountain show. Lotus Temple we liked the most.

I behaved properly during the trip. My physical health was good.

I disliked roti and kachori.

Computer

Shampa likes to draw different objects and t ext in MS Paint. She enjoys the computer cl ass.

HINDI

Shampa has a good handwriting. While taking dictation she makes mistakes.

She reads in the group very well and sometime understands by reading herself but often needs to be explained.

She gets distracted easily and starts talking to others.

She can read stories and understand them but sometimes faces difficulty in reading also.

She is doing 4th grammar book. She has just started the book and is on language chapter. She is doing 4th class BHASHA DRISHTI book.

She has developed her vocabulary this year by doing exercises from her book.

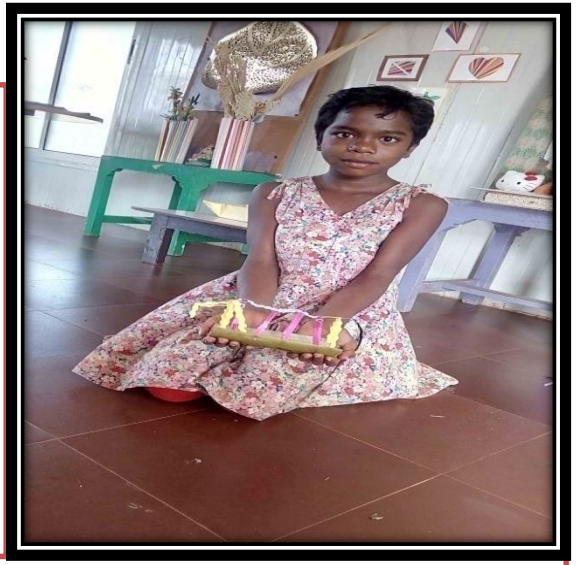
English

Shampa is very keen to read. She loves fairy tales very much and she can understand them well.

Her writing skills are very poor. She has to develop her spellings.

She does her work regularly but finishes them late.

She enjoys doing the workbook of grammar but sometimes does not understand.



She likes to learn new songs and sings them with lots of enthusiasm. Shampa sometimes creates her own line and fits them into the song in tune. She also loves to do role-play and tries to bring expression while speaking the dialogues.

Shampa is a very good storyteller. She can create her own stories, which are full of fantasy. But when she writes the story on her own, it is very difficult to understand.

The books she read this year-

- The goblin bat and other stories
- Winnie the twit
