

Drishti Pukia

Dob-28-Mar-16

Report for 2022-23

Drishti comes to school every day. She comes neat and clean, wearing clean clothes. After coming to the group, she helps to clean, along with the other children. She can clean herself after using the toilet. In chanting time, she sits nicely and chants with the group. However, in some chanting she needs to improve her pronunciation. She eats all the food which is served nicely and washes her plate as well.

GAMES

Drishti is a good and energetic girl who is not moody. She is always regular in the field. She like to play, run and do exercises, but she is not so good at stretching and some other exercises. She needs to develop her stamina. She likes to play all the games and she never complains if she doesn't like a game.

LANGUAGE (Hindi)

She is like a tortoise in the bliss group. In chanting time, she sits properly with closed eyes and chants. But her pronunciation is sometimes wrong. She enjoys the songs and bhajans with action. She takes time to learn the lines. She likes to listen to stories. When Didi asks her some questions, she only looks around and gives a big smile. She can tell a creative story in 3 to 4 lines, using drawings which she has made by herself. When she tells a creative story, she repeats her daily activities. She faces difficulty in pronouncing the words like (ka, kha, gha and da). She participated in some plays in the assembly, which are organised for language development. She takes time to remember the lines. She needs more attention from Didis. She performed the role of a child on Janmashtami.

MATH

Drishti is a good girl and sits in the class very nicely without disturbing others. She knows forward and backward counting up till 20. When she is told to count till 100, she tries her best. Once she is made aware of her mistakes, she corrects them, but forgets the next day. She can count by seeing objects. Sometimes she gets confused. But without any object she gets stuck at times. When we we make them count using Varnamala, she is able to count, but has a problem in tenth place. For example: 20, 30, 40, etc.

LANGUAGE (English)

She has improved her pronunciation. She understands stories when they are told with action. She knows the basics. She knows some opposite words. She tries to tell the answer when she is asked a question. She likes to listen to the stories from books with big pictures. She knows the names of some pictures. She also knows the colours of some objects. She shows interest in all the activities she does. She likes to sing rhymes and also likes to learn the rhymes. She has learnt two rhymes: Chai Chai Coffee Coffee, and Old McDonald had a farm. She enjoyed learning these rhymes very much. She sings them very beautifully, along with actions. She also participated in a drama: The Enormous Turnip. She had taken the role of a cat. She learnt her dialogues very fast and enjoyed doing this drama.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

She has a good concentration while tearing paper, pasting collage, and rolling quilling strips. She did quilling and made designs, she made a collage of rainbow with her friends, and also decorated with the group. In drawing, she only makes very small flowers every time. She makes her drawings very slowly. She struggles hard to finish her work on time. She fills up the colours in the pictures properly. Her fine motor skills are developing. During dancing time, she enjoys the music and body movements, and she feels very happy.

CELEBRATIONS

Dristi likes to dress up and wear costumes. She feels very happy when new programmes are coming and likes to do drama and dance. She takes a lot of time to remember her dialogues. On the stage she gets a little scared.

On 11th August, she celebrated Raksha Bandhan and tied Rakhi to other children which she had made by herself. On 15th August she took part in reciting the poem, 'A Tree' with her group mates, and did a dance on "Nanha Munha Rahi Hun". On 18th August, she took part in a drama called 'Fruit Seller', and played the role of a child. On 31st August, she sang the 'Jai Ganesh' bhajan with her friends.
