ENGLISH LANGUAGE - Brinda is hardworking and is usually bent over her book, engaged in some task or the other.

Spellings have improved dramatically and her reading is shaping up as well.

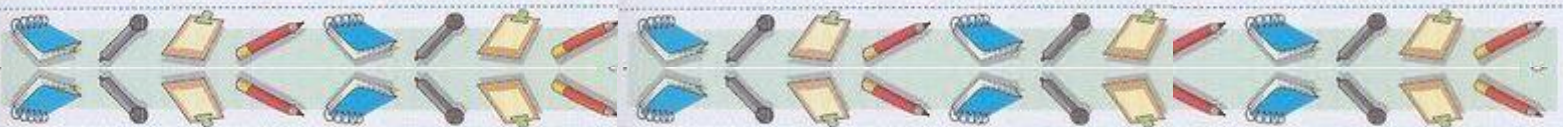

She had struggled initially with the language but has come a long way since then.

She is now more confident with her work and doesn't shy away from her mistakes but tackles them head on, smiling and laughing in between.

She likes to read and that has helped her. Her writing has been getting better, she has to still work on some aspects of sentence construction.

ART APPRECIATION - Very talkative, unsure about herself but sincere in her efforts. She enjoys art but needs constant reassurance and encouragement to carry on.
