

Jyotish Gouda

Jyotish is the eldest child in Bliss group. He joined the school very late. He likes to be around his parents when he comes to school. He hardly comes to school. Nothing attracts him more than his own village. He feels very insecure in the group. He hardly participates in the group activities.

Circle time

Jyotish sits properly during the chanting time. Sometimes he repeats the mantras with the children. Jyotish has learnt the chant “Vasudeva Sutam Deva” and “Shri Vakratunda Mahakaya”.

Cleanliness

Jyotish wears neat clothes when he comes to the school. He cleans his teeth at home and he sometimes brushes them in the school. He is toilet trained.

Food habits

Jyotish sits properly while eating and doesn't waste food. He eats all the vegetables. He cleans his plate properly after eating and rinses his mouth. He also cleans his eating place.

Language

Most of the time, Jyotish spends his time playing outside his class room. Now he can understand Hindi and can communicate a little in Hindi. He likes to see Hindi picture books and knows a few words. He tries to communicate with his limited vocabulary. Sometimes he sings rhymes but he is shy to do the actions.

Jyotish can understand English very little. But he knows a few animals' name in English.

Maths

Jyotish can count till ten with the help of objects. His basic concept of differentiation like long and short, thin and fat and big and small are clear. Among shapes, he can identify and name only the circle. He gets very confused with different shapes.

A decorative border surrounds the page, featuring colorful balloons in shades of green, blue, purple, orange, and red. Interspersed among the balloons are colorful streamers and small, multi-colored stars and confetti. The background is a light, gradient white.

Skill development

Jyotish is more interested in colouring the picture but is not much interested in drawing. He has learnt to make boat, flower and house in paper folding. Sometimes with the help of teachers, he makes a few things.

Dance

Jyotish participates in every programme. He danced on 5th July in the song “Bum Bum Bole”. For 15th August he practised the dance in the song “Desh Mere Desh” but he missed the final performance.

Games

Jyotish is an energetic child. He can run very fast and can climb a tree. He likes to play on the slide and swing.

Sports Day

On the annual Sports Day, Jyotish did not participate in the programme because he was irregular in the school.