Anita Muduli

April-2018 To March-2019

Date of Birth- 30th May 2008

Anita is the tallest among all the children of the group. She is an obedient, soft spoken and brainy child. She likes to have fun and share jokes with the teachers. Her behavior towards her elders is very good. She is also friendly to everyone in the school. She shows love for the youngsters too. In the group she is attentive and does her work with focus. She sits properly in the class. She is often lazy during classes.

Sometimes she starts chatting with her friends. When told to concentrate, she pays attention and properly does her work. She doesn’t need to be told many times. She cleans the group in her turn and arranges everything. But mostly she reaches the group late. She has to be more punctual for all the activities. She takes care of her health as she carries her water bottle and stays neat and clean. She is academically strong as she can cope up with other children easily. Sometimes brings the highest marks in the test.

1

Project

Anita is good in Botany. She has a good memory. She was good in all the tests. She did well in Civics and did the exercises properly. In the tests she found long types questions little difficult but all her short type answers were correct. She took projects about Agra fort, Bangla Sahib Gurudwara, Nahargarh fort, with Pramila. Geography is one of her area of interest where she asks a lot of questions regarding planets, Black hole, space etc. She does her homework regularly. She does well in short type answers as well as long answers.

Maths

Anita has completed the standard 5th Mathematics and started standard 6th. She remembers many of the concepts, but doesn't work hard enough. She hesitates to ask in the class. She completed the Number System and is now doing Factors and Multiple.

Music, Dance and Art

She is one of the best flute players in this group. She is taking a lot of interest. Her blowing is melodious and she can play songs with simple notes. She attended a music workshop in September and gave a good performance. On Saraswati pooja, she played a song "Stuti Aradhana" on the flute and was appreciated by all.

Dance

Anita takes interest in dance but can't remember steps in sequence and follows her friends. She has rhythmic sense and participated in the group Punjabi folk dance on Independence Day on the song of 'Rang De Basanti'. She also participated on 31st December.

Art

She likes art class. She always prefers to draw with pencils in the class. Rarely she uses colour for her drawings. Her notebook is full of girls' pictures and nature related drawings.

Sports

5

She is physically strong and plays with the stronger group children. But sometimes while playing she gets lost in her own world. For this reason she also gets scolding from her teammates but she never minds it. She is a good player. She likes to play all the games according to her turn and does all types of exercises energetically. She loves to do cycling and can cycle for a long time. Her cycling speed is slow and steady. She never tries to do any competition. She is improving in basketball day by day.

Celebration

15th August- Anita took part as goddess Chetna and summoned up the brave patriots of the past in front of Pragati. She performed well with action. She did bhangra dance on the song Rang De Basanti, and sang the songs- Rastra Aaradhan and Lab pe aati he Dua banke.

Krishna Janmastami: She played the role of Krishna and was smiling happily during the scenes.

Ganesh Puja: Anita played sargam on her flute with her friends.

Rakhi: Anita made some rakhis for her friends and tied rakhi on Stuti's hand.

For 31st December she acted on a joke and took up the role of a mother. She could make the audience laugh loud through her acting.

On Mother's birthday she participated in the play "Jagat Janani Shrimaa". She enacted the role of a teacher who narrated the story of an occultist. Mostly in plays she prefers to take up ladies roles rather than gents. She also likes typical costumes. This time she acted well as she narrated the story clearly in a confident voice. After the play she was given a small worksheet on this play. She wrote some answers correctly. She got correctly answered her dialogues related questions.

Sports day

She has written her reflections on the sports day.

I am doing cycling for the sports day. On the cycles we did ramps, ring of fire and partner. First time when I let go of the handle I fell down, but now I don't fall. First time when I had to climb ramps I didn't even go, but now I can go over the ramps easily. First time, when I raced my cycle through the ring of fire I was feeling scared. On the first day of our sports day I played kho-kho match.

I couldn't play nicely because I was getting out. On the second day I did 200m race. I thought I would not win but I won the race. Then I played relay race. In the race I thought my team would not win but my team got the first position. In the evening when we did cycling I thought I would not do properly, but everybody clapped for me. For sports day I am doing cycling. I am improving to stand on the carrier. I am improving in leaving one hand off the handle while cycling. I am improving in keeping my legs on the handle.

Trip

A small paragraph about the trip by Anita

I liked the Rajasthan trip and had so much fun. I was not tired during the trip because we always used to go by bus and walked relatively less. I liked Pushkar Lake because we saw many fishes and ate ice-cream and had tiffin and clicked photos. I liked Akshardham because we saw movie and did boat riding. I behaved properly on the whole trip. My physical health was well. I disliked kachori. I want to go for the trip again because we had so much fun and saw many things.

Computer

Anita is learning MS paint. She likes drawing different shapes and objects and faces. She holds the mouse properly. She knows how to copy, paste and make selection. She also uses transparent selection when needed.

Hindi

Anita is an intelligent girl. She understands well by reading herself. If not, then used to come to teachers for explanation. Her reading is also very good. She can read and understand by herself. She is a little lazy. She can do more but doesn't give her full effort.

She is doing 5th class book. She has recently started learning opposite word, similar word, and one word for a sentence. When she doesn't understand she comes to the teachers. She writes neat and clean. She is doing class 3rd grammar book. In grammar she has covered chapters like verb, adjectives, language, gender, case, pronoun, adverb, conjunction, interjection, synonyms, antonyms, etc.

English

Anita is a sincere girl who likes to read books from the library. She has issued many books of Enid Blyton and has a good comprehension. The books she read this year - The witch and the wardrobe, tales from Shakespeare, The magic flute. She has to improve her writing skill. Her spellings are good. She is keen to learn any song taught by the teacher and sings with interest. She can write her own story and tell to her friends.

She speaks English in the class. She likes to do a lot of comprehension and grammar from the book. She finishes her work fast. She sincerely does her work and finishes it regularly. She is very good at dramas. She gets the main character and the longest dialogues. But Anita never complains that the dialogues are too long. She remembers it fast and does her best.

Odia

Anita has mirror image at the time of reading. She has completed class IV book. She should develop her handwriting.

Anita Muduli